JUDY DARNIELLE, VICTOR GROSHENS WED IN APRIL CEREMONY HERE

On Friday evening, April 29 at 7 o'clock, Miss Judy Darnielle, daughter of Mr and Mrs Bert Darnielle of Reno, Nevada and Victor Lee Groshens were united in marriage, with the Rev Earl Soward performing the double ring ceremony at the home of the groom's parents, Mr and Mrs Victor Groshens.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, George Irvin of Lexington, wore a pink taffeta sheath dress with an orchid corsage.

Miss Charlene Jones, Lexington, maid of honor was dressed in a pink sheath dress with a carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a black and white checked suit.

Gary Jones of Heppner was the best man.

After cutting the wedding cake the couple left for a few days at the Oregon coast.

Cake and punch were served from a tea table centered with a pink and white floral arrangement to the following: Mr and Mrs George Irvin and three children, Mr and Mrs Cecil Jones,

Mr and Mrs Dale Baker all of Lexington; Mr and Mrs Gary Jones, Mr and Mrs Len Ray Schwarz, Emile Groshens, Dave Barnett, Rev Soward and Judy Groshens of Heppner.

Mr and Mrs Groshens are now living at the Orville Cutsforth ranch where the groom is employed.

Sunday Dinner Held At Cutsforth Home

Mrs Alta Cutsforth had her children, grandchildren and friends to her home on Mother's day for dinner.

Those who came to enjoy the day were Mrs Maude Pointer of Corvallis, Mr and Mrs Orville Cutsforth, Mrs Madge Bryant, The Rev Raymond Beard, Mr and Mrs Gene Cutsforth and children, Mr and Mrs Robert Killenny and children, Mr and Mrs Pat Cutsforth and children, Mr and Mrs Kenny Cutsforth and children and Mr and Mrs Fritz Cutsforth and children.

Dinner was served outdoors on the lawn.

HEPPNER JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET, PROM HELD THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

Last Thursday evening the junior class of Heppner high school entertained the senior class and other guests at the annual Junior-Senior banquet at the Catholic parish hall.

Jeanne Schmidt, junior class president, gave the welcome and Tommy Hayward, senior president, the response.

Marion Huggett, science teacher at the high school, was the speaker. He told the group that, "it is absolutely necessary for graduates to go on maturing . . . When a man admits his mistakes and corrects them he has grown up."

The theme for the banquet was "Graduates" with blue mortar board nut cups and small angels as favors and floral arrangements used on the tables.

Food for the banquet was prepared by the junior class mothers with co-chairmen, Mrs Oliver Creswick, Mrs Velma Glass, Mrs Kenneth Keeling and Mrs L D Tibbles in charge, under the direction of Mrs Homer Hager, home economics instructor.

Sophomore girls did the serving and the junior committee in charge of planning was Marlene Griffin, Kathy Spencer and Doris Morris.

Approximately 125 attended with school board members of the Heppner area, Heppner high school teachers and school officials as special guests.

On Friday night the annual Junior-Senior prom was held in the multipurpose room of the elementary school with "My Blue Heaven" as the theme.

The ceiling was draped with blue and there were angels floating on clouds about the room.

The entrance to the room was made into a garden scene with a border of large plants and flowers and cages of parakeets.

During the intermission, Florence Morris and Norman Howell were crowned queen and king of the dance.

Music was provided by the Eastern Oregon College dance band.
