

Over The Tee Cup

By Jackie Labhart

We really had a "golfabulous" time at Kinzua Sunday... the weather was perfect... the food delicious... the Heppner delegation was 28 strong... and the Kinzua hospitality was wonderful.

The Heppner golfers were the Lowell Gribbles, Bill Collins, the Creston Robinsons, Ed Bennett, Gene Hall, the Clint McQuarries, Pete Cannon, Ambrose Chapin, the Phil Mahoneys and Bobby, the Harry O'Donnella, Ted Palmateer, LaVerne Van Marter, the Raymond Fergusons, the Eddie Gundersons, Ed Shaffitz, Francis Doherty, the Phil Blakneys, and Bill and I.

Winners in the men's 18 hole competition were Allan Nistad of Kinzua and Lowell Gribble of Heppner who tied for low gross score of 80, James Rector of Kinzua had low net score 94-33-61, Ed Wham of Kinzua had the lowest score on the hidden hole, Phil Blakney of Heppner made the longest drive on No 5 and Ed Wham was closest to the pin on No 3 (with a hole in one, no less).

Winners in the women's 18 hole competition were Zella Prindle of Kinzua with low net score of 124-63-61, I luckily shot low gross score of 87, Arlene Schoeder of Kinzua had the longest drive on No 5, I was closest to the pin on No 3 and Lavina Connor of Kinzua, Dee Gribble, Hazel Mahoney and myself of Heppner all tied for the lowest number of strokes on the hidden hole.

KINZUA KOMMENTS: John Snyder (a former Heppnerite)

shot a 74 but it didn't count in the competition as he was the club pro at Kinzua... Eddie Gunderson yelling at me across one of the fairways to tell me at least he was playing in the foursome with Ed Wham and that was about as close as he would ever come to a hole in one... everyone certainly appreciated the little "cabinet" on the No 5 tee off... Phil Blakney must have had an extra bowl of wheaties for breakfast he really "belted" that drive of his... Harry O'Donnell and Phil Mahoney were really "hot" on their first round, but then I guess the high altitude cooled them off... after the scheduled competition a group of the men played some two ball foursomes and the winners of this were "Grib" and John Snyder... I can't figure out what happened to a certain match that was to be played in the late afternoon (could be both of the players "chickened out")... I am certain that all the Heppner golfers had a wonderful time and Alan Guinn of Kinzua is to be congratulated on the wonderful way he organized and scheduled the teetoffs... little "Dynamic Dee" wasn't very short of the long drive marker... Hazel was having all kinds of troubles with the last hole (and she wasn't the only one).

Our ladies day competition Tuesday was windy, wet and wearisome; but thirteen gullible gal golfers braved the elements and played the nine holes. They were Gene Case, Faye Ruhl, Coramae Ferguson, Kay Robinson, Inez Meador, Maxine Gray, Dee Gribble, Lucille Peck, Hazel Mahoney, Marie McQuarrie, Ruth Van Winkle, Donna McCurdy and myself. New golf balls were awarded to Ruth for low net score 8-18-30, Gene had the most putts on No 5 and I had the longest drive on No 8. Hazel received the free lunch from Herb Hamilton for having the fourth lowest net score (that doesn't make much sense, but it would take too many inches to explain it).

LADIES DAY LAMENTS: the weather... Inez not prepared for the winter weather, in fact the only extra paraphenalia she brought was her sun tan lotion... Coramae wishing she could have played all the holes like she did the last one... Gene with cold feet (and I do mean that literally)... we sure do miss Vi Lanham. That's par for the "course" this week.

Mrs Floyd Adams of Oswego, former Heppner resident, is here visiting friends. Robert Mahoney was home this weekend from Pacific University at Forest Grove, visiting his parents, Mr and Mrs P W Mahoney.
