4-H Club News

The 4-H Rough Riders meeting was held on May 15 at the rodeo grounds.

We had a demonstration from Homer Hager on how to break a horse. Jim Farley furnished a young colt for Mr Hager to break.

Within the first hour the colt was saddled and was working well on the driving reins. In the next hour Mr Hager was mounted and riding the colt around the pen.

I'm sure the members there learned quite a lot on how to break a horse.

Visitors were Al Fetsch, Mr and Mrs Verne Evans and daughter, Wayne Martin and son, Mr and Mrs Bob Steagall and son, Mr and Mrs Gordon O'Brien and daughter, Ronnie from Pine City club.
