Mary Evelyn Tucker Has 17th Birthday

Last Saturday night, Mary Evelyn Tucker, daughter of Mrs Mildred Padberg, entertained some of her friends at her home to celebrate her seventeenth birthday.

Her guests were Neal Penland, Lydia Van Houte, Barbara Stewart, Bill Monagle, and Larry Angell.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Rebekahs Had Part In State Assembly

Sans Souci Rebekah lodge no 33 of Heppner had the distinction of seating the state officers of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon in its 73rd annual session held in Eugene May 17, 18 and 19.

The members representing Sans Souci lodge were Elsie Ayers, Mary McMurtry, Jayne Payne, Adelle Wright, Esther Bergstrom, Altha Kirk, Betty Hood, and Bernice Nash. Teresa Bailey also helped with the seating arrangement, acting as an escort to the Assembly president, Rose Vose and assisted in passing out the favors accorded all the Assembly officers.

The Morrow County Cow Belles aided greatly toward these presentations by contributing beef steak candy and the brand names place mats. Other advertising of the Heppner area went into making these favors.

Mary McMurtry was approved as recommended for lodge district deputy president for the ensuing term.
