

IONE School Notes

The June high school class night was held Friday evening, May 27 in the cafeteria with the following program with Phil Emert as master of ceremonies. Dallas Shockley, superintendent, gave the year's review of activities, telling about the band, the athletic games of which Ione basketball team was second place in the tournament, and of those receiving awards and honors in different activities. The following student body officers were installed: John Swanson, president; Tom Martin, vice president; Evelyn Jepsen, secretary-treasurer; Cheryl Morrison, assistant secretary-treasurer; Marilyn Morgan, annual editor; Jess Martin, paper editor; Judy Morgan, Michelle Morrison and Geraldine Morgan, cheerleaders. The former officers installed them and presented them with pins. They were: Greg Leyva, president; Bob Akers, vice president; Karen Lundell, secretary-treasurer; Paula Barak, annual editor; Michelle Morrison, paper editor; and Mary Emert, Brenda Townsend and Judy Morgan, cheerleaders.

Miss Reynolds, senior class advisor was presented with a gift by Phil Emert, and Mr Hedman, freshman, advisor, was presented a gift by Kathy Rea.

Typing awards were given to the following by Gilbert Lujan—for 30 words a minute, Tom Martin, Stephen Riley, Joe Palmer, Greg Leyva, Judy Morgan, Sharon Crabtree, Theresa Esteb, Linda Heimbigner; and Bob Akers, 40 words a minute, Michelle Morrison, Geraldine Morgan, Carol Ann Palmer, Francis Rea, Lona White, Evelyn Jepsen, Sherry Benson; Marilyn Morgan, 45 words; for 50 words, Paula Barak, Karen Lundell, Dalene McDonald, Jean Martin; Charlene Jones 60 words.

Bookkeeping awards were presented to Karen Lundell, Melvin Martin and Phil Emert.

Senior achievement awards were given by Arnie Hedman to Melvin Martin, Linda Heimbigner and Karen Lundell.

A senior award in journalism was given to Linda Heimbigner by Mr Lujan.

Mrs Earl McCabe, American Legion Auxiliary Americanism chairman, presented awards to Charlene Jones and Melvin Martin. Winners in a contest. These were presented by Mr Hudson, who received a gift as sophomore advisor from Wayne Hams.

Grant Rigby presented senior achievement awards and scholarships to Linda Heimbigner and Karen Lundell. He was presented with a gift as junior advisor by Bob Rice.

One of the highlights of the evening was the presentation of the 1960 annual to Mrs Franklin Ely. The annual was dedicated to Mrs Ely as an outstanding teacher in the Ione schools. She has taught 17 consecutive years in the grades here and is now the 4th grade teacher. She taught 7 1/2 years in different schools before teaching in Ione. Paula Barak made the presentation.

Mr Shockley awarded the class of 1960 as the outstanding class. Phil Emert received the trophy. Afterwards dancing was enjoyed with Mrs Noel Dobyns playing the electric organ.

The seniors went to Seattle last weekend for their skip day. Those taking cars were Wayne Rietmann, Mr and Mrs Charles Jones, Mr and Mrs James Monroe and Miss Ann Reynolds. While in Seattle they saw the movie, Ben Hur.

Judy Morgan was chosen as princess for the Aqua Capers of Hermiston. Judy is a junior in the Ione high school, is a good swimmer and very active in athletics and a 4-H club member. She is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Lloyd Morgan.

The seniors enjoyed a progressive dinner Saturday evening. They were served cocktails at the Gar Leyva home; salad at the

Over The Tee Cup

By Jackie Labhart

The tee cup is brim full this week and the main ingredient in its brewing was sunshine... for with the advent of blue skies and warm weather, our links seemed to lure the golfers like a drop of syrup to the ant family.

Those playing in the men's Sunday morning competition were LaVerne Van Marter Sr., Raymond Ferguson, Walt Jacobs, Clint McQuarrie, Phil Mahoney, Judge Carmichael, Harry O'Donnell, Herb Ekstrom, Ambrose Chapin, Phil Blakney and Dick Meador. Ray had both low gross and low net score. Clint made the longest drive on no 6 and "Van" was closest to the pin on no 3.

Sunday afternoon Bob and Suzanne Jepsen were in charge of the organized play which was a two ball foursome. The partners were Kay Robinson and Raymond Ferguson, Suzanne Jepsen and Creston Robinson, Vi Lanham and Bob Frink, "Van" and Doreen Jacobs, "Grib" and I. Dee and Walt Jacobs, Jayne Frink and Conley Lanham. Vi and Bob shot low gross score of 34 and Grib and I had second low gross with a 35.

Among those also seen on the course Sunday were Bud and Cathy Collins, Hazel and Phil Mahoney, Eddie and Bev Gundersen, Velma Glass and Bill Blake. OVERHEARD: "Judge" Carmichael eagled no 8 and has been shooting just a few strokes over par consistently this last week... that both Jayne Frink and Bill Blake broke into the thirties Monday (Jayne with a 36 and Bill carded a 38)...

that Raymond and Eddie both shot 31's this weekend... that Creston Robinson missed a hole in one on no 3 by about 18 inches... that Bob Frink's drive on no 8 was about five feet from the cup (now that's what you would call a long straight drive)... that Paul Heinrichs played his first game of golf this weekend and shot a 42... that Harry had a little bee trouble Sunday morning (and the bees weren't in his bonnet)... that Phil Blakney looked pretty flashy in his bermudas.

Golfers on the course Monday were the Eddie Gundersens, the Conley Lanhams, the Ed Shaffitz, the Lowell Gribbles, the Clint McQuarries and Susie, the Phil Mahoneys, the Harry O'Donnells, Jayne Frink, the Bud Collins, Bill Blake, Tony McClure, Matt Hughes, Terrell Benge, LaVerne Van Marter, Velma Glass, the Dick Meadors and the Phil Blakneys.

The gal golfers playing in our ladies day competition Tuesday were Lucille Peck, Vi Lanham, Roberta Dougherty, Faye Ruhl, Kay Robinson, Cork Norene, Inez Meador, Hazel Mahoney, Velma Glass, Hester Creswick, Ruth Van Winkle, Maxine Gray, Cathy Collins, Dee Gribble and myself. New golf balls were given to Lucille for driving closest to the pin on no 3. Cathy for having the most sevens on her score card, and Vi and Faye tied for paring the most holes. Hazel had low net score (41-14-27).

David Rietmann home, the main meal at the Berl Akers home and the party and dessert at the Ray Heimbigner home. Other mothers of the senior class assisted.

which entitled her to the free lunch given by the Wishing Well. Don't forget the men's Sunday morning competition and the couples organized play Sunday afternoons.

Coupons Aid OSC's Azalea House

3162 Betty Crocker coupons were gathered by the women of the seven Morrow county extension units and presented to the girls of Azalea House of Oregon State College, according to Esther Kirmis, Morrow county extension agent.

Azalea House, built by the extension women of Oregon in 1946, is a cooperative woman's residence hall on the Oregon State campus. It has a capacity of 58 students who are recommended by their county extension committee. County population determines the quota of Azalea House' residents for each county.

Morrow county girls who have resided in Azalea House include Patsy and Janet Wright, and Carole Anne Anderson of Heppner; Carlene Rhea, Echo; Sandra Rhea, Echo has been recommended for the house this fall.

Betty Crocker coupons were collected by unit women all over the state to furnish silverware for the cooperative college home.

Ione Youth to Attend JESS I

Kenneth Lynn Smouse will attend the 5th annual JESS I for boys which is to be held at Oregon State College in Corvallis, June 12 to 25. The JESS I for girls will be held at Linfield college at the same time. These letters stand for Junior Engineers and Scientists Summer Institute and is an effort to broaden the student's horizons so that when decisions are made about college programs and careers they are made with intelligence. Costly changes are thus avoided. The students are grouped in classes of about 25 members each. They are under the direction of the specialist from the several scientists and engineer departments of the host institutes.

Students from Oregon, Washington and California will attend. Kenneth Lynn is a junior in the Ione high school and the son of Mr and Mrs Kenneth Smouse. He will stay in Weatherford hall while at Oregon State College.
