

Over The Tee Cup

By Jackie Labhart

By JACKIE LABHART

Due to a short trip to the coast last week, I was unable to brew your usual cup of tee talk, in fact you might say that you "buoy and gull" golfers were "beached" for a week.

Those playing in the men's Sunday morning competition, with Bill Collins in charge, were Francis Doherty, Harry O'Donnell, Eddie Gunderson, Ed Bennett, Judge Carmichael, Bob Frink, Ambrose Chapin, Lowell Gribble, Harlan McCurdy, Bill Collins, Conley Lanham, and Ned Sweek. Harry carded low gross score, Francis had low net and Judge made the longest drive on no 6.

Sunday afternoon two-ball foursomes were played and partners were Judge and Jayne Frink, Eddie Gunderson and Donna McCurdy, Lowell Gribble and Kay Robinson, Dee Gribble and Harlan McCurdy, Tom Glass and Beverly Gunderson, and Creston Robinson and myself. Jayne and Judge had low gross with a 33 and Dee and Harlan shot second low gross with a 36.

WEEKEND WONDERINGS: If Harlan and "Grib's" knees got sunburned . . . if Bob Penland was thrilled with his 35 he shot Saturday afternoon . . . if Marie and Clint weren't glad to find the 17 long lost "little friends" of theirs (Doug, Stuart and Barbara Gribble recovered 253 golf balls from the creek Saturday) . . . how the late, late, four-ball eightsome did Sunday evening.

Those also seen on the course Sunday afternoon were the Dick Meadors, Terrell Bengel, Matt Hughes, Ned Sweek, Bill Collins, LaVerne Van Marter, the "Buck" Ruhls and Ed Bennett.

Twenty gal golfers turned out for our ladies day competition Tuesday despite the ominous clouds and sub-irrigated fal-ways. Those playing were Gene Case, Maxine Gray, Hazel Mahoney, Coramae Ferguson, Marie McQuarrie, Dee Gribble, Susie McQuarrie, Kay Robinson, Jayne Frink, Faye Ruhl, Cork Nosen, Vi Lanham, Gladys Snider, Barbara Dougherty, Ruth Van Winkle, Cathy Collins, Hester Creswick, Dorothy Teitz (my mother) and myself. Jayne had low net with a 40-11-29, I carded low gross with a 37, Faye and Kay tied for the least number of putts and Jayne and I both parred no 9 which was the hidden hole.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT: Starting this Sunday if the days are hot (and we hope they are) the men's tee off time will be at 7:30 a.m. and the two-ball foursomes will begin at 4:00 p.m.

OVERHEARD: that Hazel shot a 38 last week and that she and Marie both did quite well on Forest Grove course . . .

VI won six new golf balls for making the longest drive in the lady Elks golf competition in Medford during the Elks convention . . . that Maurice Brown of Kinzua missed a hole-in-one by just a few inches on no 4 . . . that non-golfer Jerry Daggett seems quite interested in our game after doing so well in the hole-in-one contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

That's all on the partee line this week but should have more link lore to tell next tee time.
