

Minimum County Wheat Support Rate Set at $1.81

The basic minimum price-support rate for 1960-crop wheat in Morrow county will be $1.81 a bushel, Paul Jones of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office announced this week.

This rate is based on the minimum national average wheat support of $1.77 a bushel for the 1960 crop announced last summer. Loans will be available at the minimum rate early in the price-support period. The final national and county rates will be determined on the basis of supply and parity figures as of July 1, and any loans made at the minimum rate will be adjusted as necessary at that time.

In addition to the county rate, the ASC office now has information on minimum rates for support wheat stored in terminals. Farmers needing terminal rate information may obtain it at the county office. In general, the terminal rate exceeds the county rate by the amount of handling and freight charges necessary to get the wheat to the terminal.

As in previous years, the price of the 1960 wheat crop will be supported through loans on farm- or warehouse-stored wheat and through the purchase of wheat delivered by producers under purchase agreements. Loans and purchase agreements will be available from harvest through January 31, 1961. The loans will mature March 31, 1961. To get wheat price support, Mr. Jones pointed out, a farmer must have complied with his 1960 wheat acreage allotment.

In general, the basic support rate is for No. 1 wheat. Premiums and discounts are applied to determine the rate for wheat which is of other grades or has other quality factors. There is a discount of 20 cents a bushel for certain previously announced varieties which have inferior milling or baking qualities.

The county support rate will be adjusted for any future freight rate decreases that may occur during the 1960 period of price-support availability.

Nonrecourse price support on 1960 production of wheat will be subject to a $50,000 limitation as required by a provision of the 1960 Agricultural Appropriation Act. A producer will be exempt from the limitation on nonrecourse price support if his 1960 acreage of wheat is reduced at least 20 percent below his 1959 acreage. Loans will continue to be made in excess of $50,000 on a recourse basis under which the borrower agrees to repay any amount over $50,000 by January 31, 1962.

Six County Group Studies Formation Of Commission

A six county planning commission, plus port commissions and planning agencies met Wednesday at The Dalles, with Judge Oscar Peterson as temporary chairman, to discuss the problems of the development of the Space Age Industrial Park on the Boardman bombing range and along the Columbia River.

It was decided to form a smaller executive committee to discuss the forming of a regional planning commission and if it is determined there is a need for a professional consultant, a firm will be employed.

Judge Peterson, who has been a leader in the development plans for the Boardman area, was elected chairman of the executive committee, the Sam Cook, Umatilla county judge; Van Rietmann, Gilliam county commissioner; Vernon Miller, Sherman county judge; James Hunt, Wasco county judge and Judge Higgins of Hood River county, as members of the committee.

Residents Reminded No Burning Allowed Inside City Limits

The Heppner volunteer fire department was called out Monday afternoon to control a trash fire, started from a burning barrel, behind the home of Mrs. Richard Wells.

It was quickly brought under control, but with the high wind that day, it could have been very serious.

Fire chief Charles Ruggies, again reminds residents that no burning of any kind, even in a barrel, is permitted during fire season, without a permit and during much of the season permits are not issued to anyone.

All residents are again reminded that it is against a city ordinance to burn inside the city limits, even in a barrel.

ASC Conservation Reserve Contracts Cannot be Extended

Chairman, Paul Jones of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced that conservation reserve contracts which expire in 1960, or later years are no longer eligible to be extended for an additional period of years.

Previously, contracts entered into for 5 years or less have been eligible for extensions up to the maximum of 10 years upon application filed with the county ASC committee at any time before the original expiration date.

The extensions of contracts is being stopped at this time because of the fact that extension of a contract has the same effect as a new contract and would require the expenditure of additional conservation reserve funds. Under present legislation, no new conservation reserve contract may be entered into.

Mr. Jones said the present ruling has no effect on the period of existing contracts. These will continue in accordance with contract terms.

The county ASC office also should be notified whenever farm land which involves an acreage allotment or a conservation contract is bought or sold. There are certain regulations concerning the combinations and division of farms which must be carried out whenever land with acreage allotments changes hands. Notification of the county office will enable the necessary changes to be made on office records.

In many cases, it is even better if the ASC office can be consulted before the farm real estate deal is closed. This may prevent later misunderstanding as to how allotments or conservation reserve contracts may be effected.

BOARDMAN PROJECT POTENTIAL BEING REALIZED BY OTHERS IN STATE

Other parts of the state seem to be waking up to the potential of the Boardman bombing range and what it could mean to the state if it were made into a space age industrial park.

Last Sunday's Salem Statesman had an article, with pictures, which went into the Boardman situation quite thoroughly. The writer of the article, Tom Wright, along with others from that area visited the site and also Heppner finding out all the particulars.

The state of Washington has finally realized just what is going on and are trying to get into the act by working to entice some of the industries interested in the bombing range, over into Washington.

Judge Oscar Peterson was in The Dalles Wednesday evening to attend a meeting of a six county planning commission, of which he is the chairman. The commission includes representatives from Morrow, Gilliam, Umatilla, Wasco, Sherman and Hood River counties. They feel that this project is too large for one county to cope with alone and the commission was formed so that the counties most likely to be involved, may work together.

Two From County Enrolled in Junior Engineer Institute

OREGON STATE COLLEGE—Gerald Bunch of Heppner and Kenneth L. Smouse of Ione, are two of 150 selected high school boys from Oregon, Washington and California enrolled in a unique "Junior Engineers and Scientists Summer Institute" at Oregon State College.

To qualify, boys must have demonstrated outstanding promise in science and must have been recommended for the special program by their instructors and principal.

When they finish the two-week course on June 25, they will have had a glimpse of career opportunities in the various fields of engineering and science and will have had a chance to "test themselves" in course work conducted by Oregon State professors.

The training will be especially valuable in helping the youths chart their future career and study plans, college officials point out.

Course work covers all fields of engineering, mathematics, physics, chemistry, zoology, bacteriology, botany, and oceanography.

In addition, students visit the various campus research laboratories and observe operation of the college's training nuclear reactor, cyclotron, electron microscope, electronic computers, and high voltage laboratory. Representatives from Northwest industries speak at the evening assemblies.

The JESSI program was started in 1956 at Oregon State and has since been adopted by other schools and areas across the nation. This summer, eight other institutes will be offered with students from 22 states attending. Sponsor of the program with the college is the Scientists of Tomorrow organization of Portland.

Due to the increased enrollment, carpenters are now making four temporary classrooms out of the grade school multipurpose room.

This will do away with any indoor play space for the grade school as well as any place for school programs and meetings.

Overnight Ride Plans Made By Wranglers

The Wranglers Riding club is planning an overnight ride this weekend to Johnson Creek country. They will truck to Greenup's sheep sheds and ride from there.

Three meals will be furnished for $2.00 and anyone interested should contact Linda Valentine, Harold Erwin or Gene Pierce for reservations or transportation.

Gene Pierce announces that everyone should bring their own eating irons and a halter for your horse.

Miss Bernadine Batters and her aunt, Mrs. Montgomery of Vancouver, Wash. were guests last weekend at the home of Bess Huddleston. Miss Huddleston accompanied them to Portland on their return trip.

Visiting Mr and Mrs Jerry Rood last week were Mr Rood's sister and family, Mr and Mrs M I Mikesell of Eau Claire, Wisconsin.

until permanent school buildings can be constructed.

The Heppner schools increased in enrollment last year and with will be more students than the incoming first graders there present facilities can possibly handle.

These rooms in the multipurpose room, will only serve temporarily and even then the teachers and students will be working under a handicap. The partitions between the rooms are only partial partitions, not coming clear to the ceiling, which will be anything but soundproof and with no play area during the bad weather, the students will probably have to stay in the classrooms during play time.

The school board has been working on plans for permanent classrooms to be built on a new site, but preliminary planning takes time, and they cannot possibly be finished by September.

The board held a special meeting Monday evening to discuss with engineers the feasibility of the sites being contemplated for a new school building.

In other business, the board accepted a contract from Miss Gladys Hughes to teach the sixth grade at Irrigon. Miss Hughes is from Kansas and has been visiting in Oregon.
