

Over The Tee Cup

By Jackie Lobhart

Summer has arrived, and with it the long balmy evenings which seem to be made to order for a leisurely nine holes of golf. (If you don't have boys playing in Little League).

Those playing in the men's Sunday morning competition were Francis Doherty, Clint McQuarrie, Ed Bennett, Harlan McCurdy, Ned Sweek, Bill Blake, Jack Loyd, LaVerne VanMarter, Judge Carmichael, Phil Blakney and Harry O'Donnell. Judge carded low gross score and phil had low net.

Sunday afternoon we had an other two-ball foursome competition, and with a very noticeable absence of women, some of the men had to pair up. The couples were as follows, Dee Gribble and Bob Frink, Lowell and Ted Palmateer, Judge and Bill Lobhart, Jayne Frink and Clint, Jack and Harry and Harlan and I. "Grib" and Ted shot low gross of 36 and Judge and Bill were second with a 38. (Jack Loyd was in charge of the competition and had planned on giving golf balls to the couple with the best poker hand on the first five holes, but three couples tied with three of a kind.)

PAITEE PATTER: overheard that Harry went to Pendleton for some lessons from their pro and then entered the golf tournament in Bend (with a little urging from former Heppnerite Brad Fancher) . . . Vi and Conley Lanham played the Oak Knoll course out of Salem this weekend and Conley shot a 43 which is plenty good for a long course . . . understand there was quite a bit of betting going on among a group of golfers Saturday morning . . . we are all real delighted to see Mickey Mollahan taking up golf (and she is a real natural at the game) . . . Kay and Creston Robinson played the John Day course during the last week . . . heard that Ned Sweek drove within 20 yards of the no 6 green.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS: This Sunday Bill and I are in charge of the afternoon play and we have some real special events planned for the two-ball foursomes. Tee off time will be the usual 4:00 p m and immediately following the golf competition a potluck picnic will be held at the court house for all members and their children of Willow Creek Country Club. So whether you play golf in the afternoon or not, plan to come to the picnic between 6:30 and 7:00.

Gal golfers playing in our ladies day competition Tuesday morning were Hazel Mahoney, Kay Robinson, Mickey Mollahan, Jan Agee, Arolene Laird, Dee Gribble, Vi Lanham, LaFyrne Pratt, Jayne Frink, Cork Norene, Meg Murray and myself. Dee shot low gross of 38, I had the best poker hand for the first five holes with 4 4's and a 3, and Hazel parred the hidden hole which was no 9. After playing our nine holes we went to the court house lawn for coffee and lemonade.

4-H CLUB NEWS

IONE HIGH RIDERS

The sixth meeting of the Ione High Riders 4-H club was held July 7 at the home of Dianna Pettyjohn.

The main topic of discussion was setting a date for our pony rides. We decided on the afternoon of July 23 for our first ride. If it is successful another ride will follow shortly.

We also decided on our rodeo outfits for the Heppner rodeo parade. On July 13 we decided to have a practice day at the Pettyjohn home in Ione.

Our next meeting will be held August 2 at the home of Judy Sherer at 7:00 p m.

After the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs Pettyjohn.
