McCLINTOCK-AYERS WEDDING EVENT OF JUNE AT HEPPNER CHRISTIAN CHURCH

By JO PETTYJOHN

Wedding vows were read on Sunday, June 26 for the marriage of Roseann Ayers, daughter of Mr and Mrs Ray Ayers and Gale McClintock, son of Mr and Mrs Tress McClintock of Monmouth, in a double ring ceremony, by Rev Charles Knox at the First Christian church in Heppner.

Given in marriage by her parents, and escorted by her father, the bride wore a white full length gown with a fitted bodice and scalloped neckline trimmed in sequins and seed pearls with long sleeves and bouffant skirt of nylon net over nylon taffeta with nylon lace tiers on front and back panels and nylon lace side panels. Her fingertip veil was held by a Juliet cap of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses and white stephanotis on a white Bible. For something borrowed and blue was a blue garter given by her aunt, Juanita Ramos and something old was a lace handkerchief from her great aunt, Mrs Bill Westermeyer.

Ramos and the bridesmaids were Jean Collins, Leonore Leonzig, and Sharon Ayers. They wore similar dresses of blue batiste over nylon taffeta, with blue nylon net hats crowned with a circle of white daisies. They each carried bouquets of white carnations and blue delphiniums. The flower girl was Shelley Ramos, niece of the bride, who wore a blue dotted Swiss dress with a head band of blue delphiniums and carried a basket of blue delphiniums. The ring bearer was Robbie Ramo, nephew of the bride.

Best man was Jay McClintock, brother of the groom, and ushers were Jim McClintock, brother of the groom, Robert Laughlin, and Lynn Wilson.

The bride's mother, had on a brown voile dress with white accessories and orchid corsage. The groom's mother, wore a beige cotton dress with darker beige accessories and an orchid corsage.

The reception was held in the church basement with blue and white color scheme carried out in the decorations. The bride and groom cut the first piece of the three-tiered wedding cake decorated in pink and white topped with a bride and groom. Mrs Bill Westermeyer continued serving the cake with Judy Cochell assisting. Mrs Herval Pettyjohn and Mrs Howard Pettyjohn, aunts of the bride poured coffee and punch. Assisting about the gift table was Mrs Matt Hughes and at the guest book table were Mrs Wesley Marlatt and Judy Cochell.

For going away the bride chose a white dress, white pill-box hat, white gloves and shoes, and coral bracelet and earrings. After a week spent on the coast the young couple are at home on the Bill McClintock ranch where the groom is employed.

The bride graduated from Heppner high school with the class of 1960 and the groom graduated from Monmouth high school with the class of 1958 and had one year in the Coast Guard.

Many local friends and relatives attended also these out of town guests: Mr and Mrs Tracy Barton, Eugene; Bonnie and Sibyl Holbrook, Portland; Mr and Mrs Jay McClintock, Eugene; Mr and Mrs Lynn Wil-
