BOARDMAN GIRL BECOMES BRIDE OF KENNEWICK MAN ON JUNE 25

By MARY LEE MARLOW
Miss Connie Lou Baker, daughter of Mr and Mrs Willard A Baker of Boardman, became the bride of George D Boice, son of Mr and Mrs William G Boice of Kennewick, Wash. in a double ring ceremony at 3 p m, June 25, at the Boardman Community church. The candlelight service was performed by the Rev Lawrence Eddings, pastor of the Methodist church at Wasco.

Mrs Wayne Kuhn sang "A-lways" and "The Lord's Prayer", the latter while the couple knelt at the altar, accompanied by Mrs Harold Baker, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white satin gown with chapel train, and fitted bodice trimmed with seed pearls, and a low, round neckline. She wore matching mitts, trimmed with seed pearls, and carried a white orchid on a white Bible. She wore a pearl on a gold chain, a gift of the groom. She carried an old handkerchief, given her by her grandmother, Mrs Laura Allen. She wore the traditional blue garter, which was made by the groom's mother, Mrs Boice.

Miss Carolyn Baker was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Arlene Patterson of Gooding, Idaho, and Janelle Boice, Kennewick, sister of the groom. All three wore matching dresses of street length orchid taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodices and cummerbunds, and full skirts. They wore matching headresses of orchid net, and carried white carnations.

Johnny Partlow, cousin of the bride, and Jim Miller were the candlelighters, and ringbearers were Ronnie and Randy Baker, cousins of the bride.

Leonard Christensen of Kennewick was best man, and ushers were Billy Boice, brother of the groom, and Pete Sams both of Kennewick.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Greenfield grange hall, with about 90 people attending. The beautiful four-tiered cake, topped with bridal figurines, centered the table. After the first piece was cut by the couple, it was cut and served by Mrs Harold Baker and Mrs Arthur Allen, aunts of the bride. Mrs Arthur Compton of Kennewick poured the coffee, and Mrs LaVern Partlow, aunt of the bride, served the punch. In charge of the reception were Mrs Rollin Mooré, Mrs Ray Gronquist, Mrs Eldon Shannon, Mrs Louise Earwood and Mrs Leo Potts.

Jane Bell of Milwaukie and Nancy Swanson of Pendleton were in charge of the gift table, and Susan Partlow, cousin of the bride, had the guest book.

Cami Allen, cousin of the bride,

cars love SHELL

If your car doesn't seem as perky as it used to, it may be time to see your Shell dealer. At Shell we feel the same way as you do about having your car run right. That's why we encourage every Shell dealer to attend one of our 85 training schools. There he learns to understand your car so that he can do what is needed to give you care-free driving. And if your tank needs refilling, why not try Super Shell gasoline with TCP? You'll discover how smooth your car can run - how far you can go on a gallon.

*Trademark for Shell's unique gasoline additive. Gasoline containing TCP is covered by U.S. Patent 2889212.
