

Over The Tee Cup

By Jackie Labhart

All you "wood"-be golfers should "drive" down to our links and "par" take in this wonderful game. Our fairways are in perfect condition, the weather has been ideal and the sociability is beyond compare. You might say that our course is the golfer's home away from home and we all take a real pride in keeping it in tip-top shape.

Men playing Sunday morning were Lowell Gribble, Judge Carmichael, Harlan McCurdy, Ed Bennett, Ray Ferguson, Phil Mahoney, LaVerne VanMarter, Bob Frink and Francis Doherty.

In the Sunday afternoon competition we each played our own ball but we drew for partners and played with them, and then added our two scores together. Those playing were LaFyrne Pratt and Eddie Gunderson, Dee Gribble and Clint McQuarrie, Kay Robinson and Clint Agee, Donna McCurdy and Lowell Gribble, Vi Lanham and Creston Robinson, Marie McQuarrie and Bill Labhart, Beverly Gunderson and Gordon Pratt, Jan Agee and Conley Lanham, Terrell Bengel and Ned Sweet, Ed Bennett and Jack Loyd, and Harlan McCurdy and I. Lee and Clint had low gross score with 77 and Bev and Gordon had high gross ("nuff said") and Donna and "Grib" had low score on the hidden hole.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT:

Another potluck is scheduled following the two ball foursome this Sunday. Tee off time is the usual 4:00 and the picnic will be between 6:30 and 7:00 so all members plan to attend even if you don't play in the afternoon, but bring your own eatin' "irons".

Others seen on the course during the weekend were the Jim Barratt's of Corvallis, Bob Kelly of Seattle, John Hartman, Bill Collins, Bill Blake, the Ned Sweet, Hugh Salter, Lance Gilman of Long Beach, California, Steve Tetz of Monmouth, N. Before ending my column this week I have been asked to remind all parents that small children do not belong on the course unless accompanied by an adult. It seems as tho' our swamps are full of frogs and hold a fatal fascination for small boys, but it is also very dangerous for these children to be on the course when people are playing golf. That's all the link lore for this week.
