Chats With Your Home Agent

By ESTHER KIRMIS

I just returned from a vacation in North Dakota with my family. I found them all well and getting ready to harvest a bumper crop. North Dakota looked the "greenest" I have ever seen for some time. Good rains in June had helped the crop along. Of course, the hot weather was there, too. Two days it reached 100 degrees and the rest of the time I was there the temperatures were in the nineties. But, hot-weather-or-not, it was an enjoyable visit.

I find the Morrow county fair and rodeo premium books are out so I'm sure you're all scanning the handbook and making plans on what you might exhibit. I feel this one will be the biggest ever!

Each year the 4-H leaders council has various activities to raise money to carry on the 4-H program. One of these is the and daughter, Mr and Mrs Fred Woolcutt.

Mr and Mrs Frank Marlow went to Pendleton Sunday to visit at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Darrell Marlow, and at the home of Marlow's brother-in-law and sister, Mr and Mrs William Thurman.

Bonnie Garvison of Salem is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr and Mrs Charles Anderegg.

"4-H dinner" served at the Morrow county fair at Heppner. We ask the parents to cooperate by donations of food, money, and a few hours work in the kitchen. A good amount is usually raised and this helps to support our 4-H summer camp. Our IFYE program, record book contest, achievement party, subscriptions to National 4-H News, and other 4-H programs.

Mrs L. A McCabe, Lone; Mrs N C Anderson; Mrs Andy Van Scholack; and Mrs Douglas Drake, Heppner; met on Monday to make plans for this 4-H dinner. It will be served to the public for $1.00 on Thursday, August 25, at the fair pavilion.

A menu of baked ham, baked beans, celery and carrot sticks, tomatoes, rolls, fruit pies, coffee, and punch was selected. Letters will now be sent out to all 4-H parents to solicit food. $1.50 donation is requested of those not bringing food.

The theme of the fair this year is "Fairy Tale Lane". Think of all the beautiful floats and booths we'll have with that theme!
