PATRICIA KAY SANDQUIST AND LANCE TIBBLES MARRIED IN EUGENE

The Roseligh Wedding Chapel in Eugene was the setting for the wedding Sunday, September 11 of Patricia Kay Sandquist, daughter of Mr and Mrs W E Sandquist of Eugene, and Warren Lance Tibbles, son of Dr and Mrs L D Tibbles of Heppner.

Rev Richard Wayne of the Community Presbyterian church performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white floor length gown with lace paneled skirt over net, white lace bodice, sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of pearls, decorated with pearl sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Ann Robinson of Roseburg, who wore a cerise sheath dress of chiffon over taffeta and carried a nosegay of white carnations and pale pink roses.

The bridesmaids, who were gowned the same as the maid of honor, were LaVelle Gladwill of Roseburg and Sherry Verbeck of Portland. They both carried nosegays of pink carnations and white roses and all the attendants wore rhinestone earrings, a gift from the bride.

Karin Sandquist, sister of the bride and Terry Jean Logozs were candlelighters and Judith and Janelle Davenport, cousins of the bride were flower girls.

Serving as best man for his brother was Larry Tibbles and the ushers were John Sandquist, brother of the bride and Allan Wyman.

Sabine Phelps sang "I Love Thee" by Grieg and the Chapel was decorated with baskets of pink and white gladioli and two candleabra.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a sage green and silver sheath dress with a brocade jacket. She had silver and green accessories and wore a large green orchid corsage. The mother of the groom was gowned in brown lace over champagne satin with beige accessories and she wore a large gold orchid corsage.

At the reception, which followed the ceremony, Mrs Paul Davenport, cousin of the bride, cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs Allan Wyman. Mrs Floyd Verbeck poured and Mrs Robert Gladwill was at the punch bowl.

The new Mrs Tibbles will be a senior at the University of Oregon this year and the groom will enter the University school of law.

For the honeymoon trip to Pendleton the bride chose a green wool sheath dress with plaid jacket and brown accessories.

The couple is now at home at 973 1/2 Hilyard no 2, Eugene, Oregon.

Veronica Doherty, daughter of Mr and Mrs John Doherty of Hermiston and Malachi Kane Campbell, son of Pat Campbell of Lonerock, exchanged wedding vows in an afternoon nuptial mass at Our Lady of Angels church, August 20, with the Rev Leopold O'Riordan as celebrant. The Rev Patrick J Galre, former Heppner pastor assisted.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white embroidered tulle and organza with long sleeves, square scalloped neckline and floor length bouffant skirt in tiers of embroidery. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of hand embroidered rosebuds outlined with seed pearls and she carried pink and white carnations.

Maid of honor was Mary Frances Doherty, of Madrid, Spain, sister of the bride. Bridesmaid was Patty Strabaia, Ojai, California.

They wore similar pink lace sheaths with organza overskirts and carried pink rosebud bouquets made by Alma Rohrman, Pendleton.

James Campbell, Lonerock, was best man for his brother. Ushers were John McMonigle, Haily, Idaho; Frank Burns, Condon and Robert O'Rourke, Pendleton.

Organist was Terry McLaughlin, Pendleton who accompanied Bill Kenny, Heppner soloist.

A buffet supper followed the ceremony with decorations in pink and white. Mrs Pat C Doherty, Pendleton, aunt of the bride and Mrs A F Rohrman, Hermiston, cut the cake.

Following a wedding trip to Salt Lake City, Reno and Lake Tahoe, the couple will make their home in Hermiston. The bride is a graduate of Hermiston high school and Gonzaga University and will teach in the Hermiston school system. The groom is a graduate of Heppner high school and Portland University and is an accountant at Rohrman Motor Co.
