Monument

By MARTHA MATTESON

The eighth annual banquet of the Monument unit of the state forestry department was held Sept 16 in the grange hall. It was given by the employers as a gesture of appreciation for the loyalty and team work which was needed this fire season as the unit has had 63 fires up to date. All but three were caused by lightning.

The crew presented their employer with a lovely blanket and each employee in turn was given a small gift. Each employee gave a talk and slides of forest nature were shown. Place mats and place cards of Keep Oregon Green were used for decorations. Out of town guest was Dick Bondau of Trineville.

Merlin McCory and Keith Cork have returned to school. They were employees of the Monument forestry unit.

Mr and Mrs Ted Whitaker and children of Twin Falls, Idaho drove in Friday evening with his father, Joe Whitaker who came back to make his home here with his daughter, June Hutchison and children. Ted and family returned home Saturday.
