WIGHTMAN-SUTHERLAND VOWS READ IN SALINAS, CALIFORNIA

McCormick chapel of the First Presbyterian church was decorated with white stock and gladioli adorning the altar and candlebrum for the 7:30 o'clock wedding of Miss Barbara Anne Sutherland and Mr. James Monroe Wightman. Dr. M. L. Kemper read the rites before fifty witnesses August 24, 1960. Vocal selections by Mrs. Ruel Leffer, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Godsey, included, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Mr. Dallas Christian Sutherland of West Milton, Ohio gave his daughter in marriage for which she wore a floor length gown of white lace, the scalloped lace detail of the fitted bodice being repeated in the hemline of the bouffant skirt. Her silk illusion veil, coming to elbow length was attached to a pearl necklace and earring set given her by the bridegroom, and carried a white orchid encircled with stephanotis.

Flocks of blue-green iridescent silk organza were worn by the bride's attendants. Mrs. Rodney A. Upton II, of Rancho Cordova, was matron of honor, while Miss Gail Ann Howe of West Hartford, Conn., was bridesmaid for her former college roommate. Their street length gowns were complimented by matching bow headbands and bouquets of marguerite daisies.

The bride's party was met at the altar by the bridegroom and Mr. Marvin E. Wightman Jr., of San Francisco, who was his brother's best man. Ushers were Mr. Edward Schmidt of Soledad, California, and Mr. Donald Clapapel of Concord, California.

In the receiving line with the bride and groom were the bride's mother, who wore a milk brown lace sheath with matching accessories with green cymripedium orchids, and Mrs. Marvin Wightman, the bridegroom's mother, who selected a mint green sheath with matching accessories and bronze cymripedium orchids for the occasion.

Reception for the couple was held in the church living room where the three tiered wedding cake was encircled with begonias and topped with a cluster of white stephanotis. Miss Janet Wightman, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

Corvallis, Oregon, was the honeymoon destination of Mr. and Mrs. Wightman. Mrs. Wightman donned a turquoise raw silk sheath with matching hip length jacket, black patent accessories and the orchid from her bouquet for their departure.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Christian Sutherland of Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wightman of Annapolis, California are parents of the benedict.

Mr. Wightman will enter Oregon State College. He was released from service with the Army at Fort Ord on July 1st. His bride taught at El Gabilan school in Salinas before her marriage, and will instruct a fifth grade class in Albany, Oregon. She attended Milton High School, Miami, University in Oxford, Ohio and graduate school at Ohio State University.
