

DEVIN-GRAVES UNITED IN CEREMONY AT FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Wedding vows were exchanged between Maureen Ann Graves and Oliver J. Devin, September 10, 1960 at the First Christian Church in Heppner.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Charles Knox of Heppner.

The bride is the daughter of Maurice Graves of Klamath Falls but has made her home with the Archie Munkers for the past nine years. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Devin of Heppner.

The bride given in marriage by Archie Munkers wore a white lace over taffeta ballerina length gown with fitted bodice and three quarter length sleeves. The skirt was flared with a large satin bow across the back. Her shoulder length veil of illusion net was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried her white Bible topped with an all white bouquet of white roses and shasta mums.

Matron of honor was La Yonne Bloodsworth who carried an arm basket of yellow Shasta mums. She wore a dress of blue lace and chiffon.

Best man was Ellis McRoberts, brother of the groom. Vern Vial was the usher.

Organ music was by Mrs. Charles Knox who also accompanied Faye Munkers, who sang "Because" and "Oh Perfect Love."

Denise Bloodsworth had charge of the guest book and Barbara Bloodsworth was in charge of the gift table.

A reception followed in the church basement with Mrs. Bob Davidson and Mrs. Vern Vial in charge.

Yellow and white mums and yellow glades were used for decorations in the church for the reception.

The brides table was centered by an all white three tiered wedding cake decorated with yellow roses and silver leaves, topped by a miniature bride and groom.

After the bride and groom cut the first piece of wedding cake, Mrs. Edna Munkers and Mrs. Hattie Crabtree served the cake.

Mrs. Letha Archer and Mrs. Ora Wylands, aunts of the groom poured.

Following a trip to the Coast and California the couple will make their home in Heppner.

Tews-May Wedding Held In Seattle

Of interest to many in Morrow county was the recent wedding of Miss Joan Tews to Mr. Sherman L. Bay held in Seattle, Washington, September 17th at 2 o'clock. Miss Tews is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Tews of that city, and sister of Paul W. Tews of Ione. Mr. May's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sterling L. May of Portland.

The bride was escorted to the altar by Mr. Paul Tews. Attendants were Miss June Hauger of Albany, and Mr. Jack H. Henderson of Portland. Mrs. Paul Tews assisted at the reception which followed. Other out-of-town guests who assisted at the reception were Mrs. Lillian A. Wilkinson, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Larry C. Goble and Mrs. John Fitzgerald, aunt and sister of the groom, all of Portland.

The newly married couple will make their home in Albany, where both are research chemists for the Federal Bureau of Mines.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tews and family, other Ione residents attending the wedding were Mrs. C. W. Swanson and Mrs. J. E. Swanson.
