

Spaulding-Wihlon Exchange Vows

Miss Margaret Ann Spaulding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Spaulding of Louisville, Ky., and T-4 Armin R. Wihlon, son of Mr. Armin Wihlon of Lexington and Mrs. Hermann Wallace of Pasco, Wash., were united in marriage at a 10:00 a.m. Mass Saturday, Nov. 5, in the Cathedral of The Assumption in Louisville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white four tiered lace skirted gown over taffeta, with fitting bodice and empress neckline, and long pointed sleeves. The bride carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and carnations, and wore a shoulder length veil. The Matron of Honor was the bride's sister and wore a rose colored floor length taffeta gown and carried a pink bouquet. Best man for the groom was Leroy Buckel and usher Don Keefer.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride following the ceremony for the bridal party and immediate members of the family. Following this there was a reception at the Knights of Columbus hall from 1:30 to 4:00 p.m.

The bride's table was beautifully decorated with flowers and a lovely three-tiered wedding cake with the traditional bride and groom adorning the top.

After a short wedding trip the young couple will be living in Louisville where he is stationed at Fort Knox and where the bride is employed.

Armin Wihlon of Lexington flew to Kentucky to attend the wedding, returning Sunday. Richard has spent most of his life in Lexington having attended high school here until his enlistment in the U. S. Army.

Past Noble Grand Club Meets

The home of Mrs. Inez Huffman, Heppner, was the scene of the annual fall dinner meeting of the Past Noble Grand Club of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge.

A delicious swiss steak dinner was served by the hostess, Mrs. Humman, assisted by Mrs. Cornett Green and Mrs. Thomas Wells. The attractively set tables were grouped in the living room.

Following dessert the meeting was called to order by President Miss Esther Bergstrom. Secretary Mrs. Deloris McDowell read letters from the following members not present: Mrs. Sara McNamer, Portland, Mrs. Bernice Disney, Madras, and Mrs. Daisy Charlton, LaGrande.

Highlighting the meeting and creating much excitement was the revealing of secret pals with gifts containing the long concealed names of sender of gifts and cards. New names were drawn and officers elected for the ensuing year.

Games were played with Mrs. Mabel Chaffee in charge. Special guests of the evening were: Mrs. Bea Gomillion, Athena; Mrs. Bertha Dinges of Holly Lodge, Lexington; Mrs. Melba Quackenbush, Noble Grand elect of Sans Souci; Mrs. Iris Van Houte of Ualtee No. 224, Stanfield; Mrs. Evelyn Farrens, Mistletoe No. 22, Hardman.

Other members present were Mrs. Mary Bailey, Mrs. Millie Doolittle, Mrs. Tacie Parker, Mrs. Letha Archer, Mrs. Mary McMurry, Mrs. Jeanne Dobbs, Mrs. Pearl Devine, Mrs. Ruth Bergstrom and Mrs. Helen Kruger, all of Heppner.

The next meeting will be held in the new home of Mrs. Cornett Green Dec. 5.

Rhea Creek Unit Plans Card Party

The Rhea Creek extension unit had for its November lesson, "A Look at a Woman's World." The leaders for this lesson were Jane Rawlins and Muriel Palmer.

Their knowledge of this subject covered information ranging from statistics of marriage and divorces from a period of 1890 to 1960. Also changes in the family reflected in a woman's life cycle. From newly married to the "empty nest" period and widowhood.

Problems presented to the group consisted of young marrieds and in-laws, money in the home, the raising of children and how to prepare for retirement.

After a potluck lunch the business meeting was conducted with business pertaining to the card party and bazaar to be held Saturday, Nov. 12, at 7:30 p.m. at the Rhea Creek grange hall.

Also a discussion of the knitting class which is to be held in the December meeting.

The following members were present: Verne Batty, Ann Bergstrom, Marlene Bergstrom, Evelyn Farrens, Doris Graves, Shirley Palmer, Muriel Palmer, De Leva Rill, Ninon Rill, Mildred Wright, Eva Wright, Pearl Wright, Beverly Wright, Nona Leathers and Jane Rawlins.

We urge all the members to attend the card party and bazaar and the knitting class in December which will be potluck.

De Leva Rill won the door prize with Doris Graves and Eva Wright winning the Dutch auctions.
