Rogena Wilson Celebrates Ninth Birthday

The Hubert Wilson home was the scene of a birthday party on Sunday afternoon for their daughter, Rogena, on her thirteenth birthday.

She entertained 12 girls from her seventh grade room with games, dancing, refreshments, and the opening of her gifts.

Those girls enjoying the afternoon were Joan Stockard, Janis Baker, Joan Van Houte, Maureen Doherty, Sandy McDonald, Jeanette Ledbetter, Barbara Gribble, Diane Schaffitz, Karen French, Ladonna Wybrew, Leslie Meador, and Sheridan Wyman.

Duplicate Bridge Club Plans December Party

The Duplicate bridge club met for their first evening of play this fall at the LaVern Van Marter home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Conley Lanham were hosts for the evening with four tables in play.

The members also planned a party to be held in December. This will end the play for this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanham served dessert and coffee to Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Gible, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dick, Mr. and Mrs. William Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Meador, Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Van Marter, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Wolff.

Mrs. Nelson Shows Films

The St. Elizabeth Guild of the Episcopal church met at All Saints parish house with Elsie Ayers presiding.

Mrs. R. B. Rice had charge of the program with Mrs. Alfred Nelson of Lexington showing her pictures of the "Passion Play" which they took on their visit to Bavaria, Germany. Everyone present enjoyed the pictures.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. A. D. McMurdo and Mrs. Frank Turner. There were ten members and one guest, Mrs. Bruce Spencer, present.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gilliam are home from Portland where Mrs. Gilliam recently underwent major surgery at St. Vincent's hospital.

Girls Kidnapped For Early Breakfast

The Rainbow girls staged a surprise "kidnap" event on Saturday morning for the prospective new Rainbow girls.

The girls were then taken to the Masonic hall "come-as-you-are" for breakfast at 7 a.m. Mrs. Oliver Creswick and Mrs. Roy Quackenbush, advisers, and several Rainbow girls on the various committees helped with this affair.

Prizes were awarded for the girl looking "the worst" and "the best." Ann Jones won for "the best" and Barbara Gribble won the prize for "the worst." There were about 50 girls taking part. Mrs. Roy Kirk talked to the girls on "good grooming" after their breakfast.

Fourteen girls will be initiated into the Order of the Rainbow on Dec. 5 at the Masonic hall.

St. Monica's Plan Bazaar

St. Monica's Guild of the Episcopal church held their meeting on Nov. 15 at the home of Mrs. James Farley with Mrs. Jack Loyd as co-hostess.

There were 15 members present who elected their new officers for the year. Mrs. LaVern Van Marter was elected president, Mrs. Bill Blake, vice president; Mrs. Rod Murray, secretary-treasurer.

Also the group discussed the theme and decorations for the coming bazaar to be held Dec. 3. Mrs. Loyd and Mrs. Farley served salad and coffee at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Anderson Entertains

Mrs. Frank Anderson entertained the Renegers bridge club at her home on last Wednesday evening with two tables playing.

Winning high was Mrs. Bill Labhart; Mrs. Gene Hall won second high, and Mrs. LaVern Van Marter had low.

Enjoying refreshments served by Mrs. Anderson later, were: Mrs. Jim Norene, Mrs. Richard Meador, Mrs. Bill Barratt, Mrs. Bill Labhart, Mrs. Gordon Pratt, Mrs. Harriet Hall, Mrs. LaVern Van Marter and Mrs. Creston Robinson.

Bill Wolff Has Birthday Party

Billy Wolff celebrated his 9th birthday with a party at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Wolff on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Wolff served a hamburger dinner to: Robbie Abrams, LaVern Van Marter, Kevin Dick, Bob Peck, Matt Murray, Ronnie Flug, Phil Ayers, Shelley, Kelley, and Tommy Wolff, the honoree, Betty, and Margaret Green.

After the opening of the gifts the boys went to the movies.

Children Enjoy Birthday Parties

Mrs. Avery Taylor's home was the scene of two birthday parties held recently.

On Monday last week, Peggy Taylor was guest of honor at a party for her seventh birthday. She had as her guests: Becky Fullerton, Ava Lynn Green, Lindsay and Pammy Reasoner, Susie and Sandy Wachter, Lois and Stevie Ring. The children played games, enjoyed the gift openings, and later had cake, ice cream, and punch.

Then on Friday, Avery Taylor, Jr. enjoyed his sixth birthday at a party with guests: Allen McCabe, Eric Graves, and Doug Gunderson. The boys played games and later were served cake and ice cream by Mrs. Taylor.

Merry Cookerettes Plan Future Projects

Shirley Hicks was hostess for the Merry Cookerettes 4-H Club on Nov. 16.

We made out our schedule telling where the meetings would be held and what would be discussed at each meeting.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. M. Baker. We plan to bake fruit and nut breads.

The refreshments were served by Shirley; they were cookies and punch.

Scouts Put Out Flags

On Veterans Day, the Boy Scout troop 86 put up the American flags at all of the business places in Heppner, early in the morning. Later in the evening we took them down and put them back in the Legion hall. Mr. Taylor treated all of us to refreshments at the Wishing Well.

On Nov. 16 at our regular meeting at the Legion hall, we had the flag salute, we played two games, payed our dues, then we had a discussion.

We put the flags back on the stage then we were dismissed. Those attending were: scout leaders, Avery Taylor and Harry Jackson, and assistant scout master, Clarence Baker, scout members: Steve Baker, Johnnie Cole, David Anderson, and Henry Wilhelm, II.
