Mother's Club Exchange Christmas Decorations At Party

The Heppner Mother's Club held their annual Christmas party, Dec. 12 at the Vic Kreimeyer home with Mrs. Kreimeyer, Mrs. Robert Williamson, and Mrs. Ralph Richmond as hostesses.

The rooms were beautifully decorated in the holiday theme with many of the decorations being made by the members at the November meeting. These are to be given to the patients at the Nursing Home in the Pioneer Memorial hospital for Christmas.

A Christmas greeting letter was read from Mrs. Ken Keeling who now lives in La Grande. Christmas cards were written to three members who have moved this past year, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. Ken Keeling, and Mrs. Fred Prussing.

A gift of a planter was presented to past president, Mrs. Eolce Fullerton in appreciation of her year's work.

Games representing traditions around the world were played with a Mexican pinata being broken and Santa Lucia being chosen by the group. Mrs. Robert Jones was the honored member and was crowned with a Santa Lucia crown and presented a gift.

Christmas carols were played and sung by the group and the club was favored with a solo, "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," by Vic Kreimeyer.

The Christmas decoration exchange was held with many of the decorations hand made.

Refreshments of fruitcake and spice tea with a background of Christmas music by Vic Kreimeyer.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Gordon Hutchens.

Invited guests for the evening were: Mrs. Robert Booth, Mrs. Tim Moore, Mrs. Fred Gimbel, Mrs. Sam Nagel, Mrs. Earl Ayers, Mrs. Hutchens, and Mrs. Richard Haworth.

The next meeting will be Jan. 9 at Mrs. N. C. Anderson's home.

Sadie Parrish drove to the Hinkle station early Wednesday morning to meet Leta Humphreys who had just returned from a six month trip to Europe and the Far East.

New Officers Installed At Joint Ceremonies

Oliver Creswick succeeded Eugene G. Hall as Worshipful Master of Heppner Lodge No. 69, A.F.A.M., at the eighty-fourth annual installation of officers held in their lodge hall in Heppner last Saturday evening.

Installing officer was Harold Becket, installing marshal was Paul W. Jones, and installing chaplain, Claude R. Graham.

Officers installed were: Creswick, worshipful master; Don Turner, senior warden; Clarence Baker, junior warden; R. B. Rice, treasurer; Harold Becket, secretary; John Pfeiffer, senior deacon; William Cox, junior deacon; Claude Graham, chaplain; Paul Jones, marshal; Millard Nolan, senior steward; Roy Quakenbush, junior steward; and Eugene Hall, tyler. The secretary was installed by Oliver Creswick after assuming his station.

The Royal Arch Masons installed Oliver Creswick, high priest; Paul Jones, scribe; Robert Abrams, Royal Arch captain; and Clarence Baker, master of the second veil. Because of foggy weather, several officers-elect from other parts of the jurisdiction were not present, so will be installed at a later meeting. J. O. Turner acted as installing officer for the Royal Arch Masons, with Paul Jones as installing marshal and Claude Graham as installing chaplain.

The installation ceremonies were preceded by a turkey dinner, prepared by the ladies of the Eastern Star, headed by Mrs. Oliver Creswick, worthy matron, and Mrs. J. R. Huffman, associate matron. They were assisted in the serving of the dinner by members of the Ruth Assembly, Order of the Rainbow.

Student Panel On Human Relations At Soroptimists

Human Rights Day was the subject of the program presented to members of Soroptimist Club of Heppner on Thursday. A panel from Heppner High School students consisting of Larry Tibbles, Dennis Ferguson, Mike Healy and Sandra Jones explained the establishment, purposes and need of a Human Rights agreement among nations.

Mrs. Paul Jones was also a guest.

Mrs. Elaine S. George presided as acting president. Members brought gifts to be sent in a Christmas package to Fairview Home at Salem. It was announced that the club's annual Christmas party would be held Monday evening, December 19, at the home of Mrs. James G. Thomson. At this party gifts are prepared for patients at Veterans hospital in Walla Walla and Christmas dinner baskets for elderly persons without families.

Mrs. Green Receives Gift For New Home

The Past Noble Grand club met at the new home of Mrs. Cornett Green, Dec. 5. A short business meeting was held with Mrs. C. J. D. Bauman, club president, presiding. Nineteen members were present.

Mrs. Green had portrayed the Christmas theme with beautiful decorations throughout her home.

A gift was presented Mrs. Green for her new home by club members. Games were played and refreshments served by the hostess and co-hostesses, Mrs. Don Robinson and Inez Huffman.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Don Robinson during the month of February, with the exact date to be set later.

Barratts Entertain With Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barratt entertained at their home recently with a dinner party and two tables of bridge.

An interesting point of the evening was the 7-no trump hand held by Max Barclay, having all of the count in his hand which is unique. Such a hand happens very rarely.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jepsen, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Barclay were the guests of the evening.

Two Pinochle Tables At Mankin Home

Mrs. Fred Mankin was host to the Pinochle club at her home on Friday afternoon with two tables in play.

Mrs. Max Harris won high, Mrs. Orin Wright received low, and Mrs. Charles Beckett and Mrs. Mankin won the double pinochle.

Refreshments were served later in the afternoon to: Mrs. Earl Evans, Mrs. Walter Beckett, Mrs. Ben Anderson, Mrs. Robert Lowe, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Becket, and the hostess, Mrs. Mankin.
