Rhea Creek Unit
Learns To Knit

On December 7, the Rhea Creek Extension Unit met and held its December meeting at the Grange hall.

At the beginning of the meeting, Mary Campbell, the health and safety chairman, had an eye opener quiz consisting of traffic safety questions. Every one participated in the quiz.

The business meeting followed. There were 18 present, 15 members and 3 guests. From the bazaar that was held last November at the Rhea Creek Grange hall, the unit made $36.40.

After the business meeting, the afternoon was spent "Learning to Knit."

Our leaders for this project were Mrs. Thelma Smethurst and Mrs. Dorothy Bauers. Participating in this project were Vern Batty, Marlene Bergstrom, Mary Campbell, Evelyn Farrens, Doris Graves, Shirley Palmer, Muriel Palmer, DeLeva Rill, Sue Vinson, Emma White, Mildred Wright, Pearl Wright, Beverly Wright, and Nona Leathers, also guests, Mrs. Iva Booker and Mrs. Helen Stevens.

It was decided to hold another meeting on knitting on December 14 at 1:30 p.m. at the Grange hall.

Shirley Palmer won the door prize.

The next scheduled extension meeting will be on January 4, 1961 at the Grange hall.

MERRY COOKERETTES PLAN
GIFT WRAPPING PARTY

The Merry Cookerettes met at the home of Mrs. E. M. Baker, Dec. 7 with five members present.

Our 4-H group met right after school, we learned how to bake fruit and nut breads. We also prepared our own meal. Each person chose what she wanted to do. We drew names for Christmas and decided to give something baked to the person whose name we got.

Our next meeting will be at the home of Marilyn Morgan. It will be a gift wrapping party. Each person is to bring one of their Christmas gifts and try to create some new way to wrap it. This meeting will be on Dec. 21.

THE BUSY BAKERS
ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The Busy Bakers met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Pat O'Brien on Tuesday, Dec. 13.

The name for the club was chosen. All of the members were elected to a job for the year. Discussion of the projects and goals for the new year was held.

The officers elected were, president, Barbara Blake; vice-president, Martha Pierce; secretary, Sheridan Wyman; song leader, Karen Blake; news reporter, Sherri O'Brien; scrap book, Kathy Blake; photographer, Jennifer Blake; game leader, Mona Marshall.

At our next meeting we will learn how to prepare cold drinks. Reporter, Sherri O'Brien

Christmas

"And when they were come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down, and worshipped Him; and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts, gold, and frankincense, and myrrh." As on the night when the Wise Men found the place where He was, may the story of the first Christmas bring to us wonder and joy ever new. And may His message, heard again in song and story, give to all of us the great gifts of spiritual joy, eternal hope and promise.
