

BOARDMAN NEWS EVENTS MARKED BY ACCIDENTS AND VISITS

By MARY LEE MARLOW

A glare of ice on the highway caused numerous accidents with cars near here Monday. Six cars went into a spin and either crashed into banks at the side of the road or out into the desert about a mile east of Boardman. There were no real serious injuries. Some of the cars went on after getting back onto the highway. At least one had to be towed to the garage. A wheel was knocked off a U-haul trailer and had to be taken in. About a mile west of Boardman a cattle truck belonging to Rube Leslie of Pendleton skidded on the ice and overturned, killing two of the cattle and spilling the rest out. Cars coming along immediately after this skidded and overturned or left the road. There were about six in number. Three of them had to be towed to the garage. Again there were no serious injuries.
