CANDLE-LIGHT CEREMONY UNITES MARJORIE PECK AND DEAN GRAVES

An evening candlelight ceremony at 7 o'clock Tuesday, Dec. 27, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold K. Peck, united in marriage Miss Marjorie Kay Peck and John Dean Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Graves of Hardman.

For her wedding the bride wore a street length sheath dress of white wool jersey. Her headpiece was a rhinestone tiara. She carried a white satin Bible with a bouquet of garnet rosebuds with white mums. Her rhinestone necklace was a gift of the groom. She wore the traditional blue garter and a penny, the year of her birth placed in her shoe by her father.

The rooms were decorated in the Christmas theme.

Mrs. Roger Palmer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a red wool jersey and carried a nosegay of candy-stripe carnations. The best man was Mr. Robert Harrison, cousin of the groom, of Cascade Locks.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and the Rev. Charles Knox officiated at the double ring ceremony.

During the ceremony Miss Phyllis Nolan, cousin of the bride, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Leland Hardy, sister to the bride. Mrs. Leland Hardy also played the wedding marches. Their corsages were candy-stripe carnation.

A reception followed the ceremony. The bride and groom cut the first piece of cake which was later cut and served by Mrs. Millard Nolan, aunt to the bride. Mrs. Louis Carlson, sister of the groom, served punch and Miss Phyllis Nolan poured coffee.

The bride's mother wore a beige shantung two piece dress and the groom's mother wore a navy blue suit. Their corsages were red carnations.

The bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Burton H. Peck of Lexington, also attended the ceremony.

The groom is in the United States Army stationed at Fort Lewis where he reported for duty January 5. The bride is a senior in Heppner high school where she will remain to finish after a short wedding trip. She will then go to join her husband.
