

Cardinals Continue Winning Streak With Two Victories

By LORRAINE BALL

Ione Cardinals won their first league game at home Friday night from Riverside 48-41.

The game was close the first half as Riverside and Ione took turns leading, with Ione ahead 11-7 in the first quarter. The same was true for the second quarter as Ione still led at half-time 21-18.

Ione widened their lead in the second half and never lost it as they ended 48-41. High point man for the game was Francis Rea with 25 and Obermeier for Riverside with 11.
