Rebekahs Accept Three New Members

Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 met Jan. 20 with Noble Grand Mrs. Melba Quackenbush in the chair and the new officers for 1961 in their places. Attending the meeting were 29 members and one visitor; including fourteen Past Noble Grands.

Three new members were accepted by transfer of card. They were Mrs. Alvin Wagenblast, and Mrs. Randall Martin, both from Holly Rebekah Lodge No. 139 in Lexington; and their sister, Mrs. Helen Kruger from Lupine No. 116 in Mono. They were presented corsages by Mrs. Quackenbush.

Mrs. Merle Kirk, assisted by some of the members, gave a skit honoring Thomas Wildey, founder of the Oddfellows in the United States, in 1819.

Mrs. Tacey Parker and Mrs. Blanche Brown were elected trustees to replace Mrs. Pearl Devine and Mrs. Mary Bailey on the executive committee.

Appointed to the finance committee were, Mrs. Letha Archer, Mrs. Mattie Green, and Mrs. Helen Kruger; visiting, Noble Grand, Vice Grand, and their supporters; and courtesy, Mrs. Martin.

Mrs. Kirk gave a report on the Oddfellow's U. N. Pilgrimage of Youth. The finals are held in Pendleton March 5.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by Mrs. Tacey Parker and Mrs. Ruth Bergstrom. The next meeting will be Feb. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Turner, Darlene and Ted, were here for the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sowell and on Saturday evening they attended the crab feed at the Elks.

Here from Pendleton were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Glennie who stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scrivner and went to the Elks crab feed on Saturday.

County Cow Belles List Many Activities In Past Year

The Morrow County Cow Belles completed another year under the leadership of Shirley Rugg by sponsoring a lamb cookery demonstration at the Annex building on Jan. 14, with the help of Mrs. Betty Ashbaugh, home economist of the American Lamb Council and Miss Esther Kirmis, Morrow county extension agent.

The regular business meeting was held Saturday, January 15, at the Odd Fellows hall. At this time a review of the year's activities was given. Included was the Father of the Year contest which was won by E. Markham Baker of Lone; the baby born closest to Father's Day, whose parents were awarded a roast donated in behalf of the Cow Belles by Hynd Brothers and given this year to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Daugherty; the donating of Morrow County Cow Bell brand place mats and beef candy to the Rebekah lodge for use as favors at the state Rebekah convention in Medford, advertising beef and Morrow county; the placing of a booth at the county fair; the donation of ten dollars to the Riverside and Heppner high schools home economics classes for the purchase of meat to be used in their cooking classes; the donating of the place mats and napkins for use at the annual banquet at the parish hall; the presentation of a Cow Bell statuette to the outgoing president, Shirley Rugg, and last but not least, the entering of a contestant, Norma French, from Morrow county in the leather modeling contest at the national cattlemen's convention.

The guests present were State Cow Belle president, Annie Williams; state secretary, Lillian Mascall; and first state vice president, Beulah Hynd.

New officers for the coming year are: president, Merlyn Robinson, first vice president, Loren Jones; second vice president, Beth Hynd; third vice president, Patricia Brindle; and secretary-treasurer, Marjorie Worden.

Joan Spencer visited her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Spenser on the weekend from nurses' training at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.

ELKS ANNUAL BRIDGE AND PINOCHELE TOURNAMENT NOW IN FULL SWING

The Elks annual bridge and pinocchle tournaments are in full swing now after three weeks of play.

The bridge players meet every Monday night and the pinocchle every Tuesday night in the Elks dining room. The tournaments are scheduled for seven weeks and will be completed the last week of February.

There are nine tables in each tournament which are divided into sides, one couple being north-south and the other east-west.

Prizes are awarded each week to the first and second place winners and then a grand prize.

Triple Link Plans Valentine Card Party

The Triple Link club of Sans Souci lodge met Jan. 16 at the home of Mrs. John Bergstrom with sixteen members present.

Plans were made for the annual Valentine card party set for Feb. 11, 8:00 p.m. at the Oddfellows hall.

This is an annual event for contributions for the district winner of the essay contest sponsored by the Oddfellows, Rebekahs and all branches of Oddfellowship.

The student winner of this contest wins the educational bus tour to the United Nations.

This is the twelfth year for the contest and three of the winners have come from Heppner which were Jack Sumner, Sally Palmer Green, and Joan Brosnan Robison.

Mrs. Floyd Worden will host the next Triple Link meeting on Feb. 20 at her home.

After the business meeting, the group played pinocchle with prizes won by Mrs. Robert Van Houtte, high; Mrs. Ellen Moore, low; and Mrs. Mary Wright, the door prize.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lincoln Nash and Mrs. Frank Payne.

Mrs. Blakney Serves Pizza At Bridge Club

The Phil Blakney home was the scene of a bridge party last week with Mrs. Blakney entertaining the Kings Little Queens bridge club.
