Keys Charivari

A group of friends, surprised the newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Key, Saturday evening with a charivari at their home. Everyone gathered at the south end of town and proceeded with much horn-blowing and the police siren to the Key home for the surprise party. Coffee and cake were served throughout the evening to the guests who later persuaded the groom to give his bride a ride to town in the wheelbarrow.

Correction Noted For P.T.A. Typing Class

Mrs. W. H. Wolff reports the P.T.A. study classes are off to a good start with 10 and 11 enrolled in the knitting, bridge, and volleyball, but so far only five persons in the typing class which is open for more members.

The Great Decisions group got started Wednesday evening with Mrs. Roy Kirk as the instructor.

It was incorrectly stated in last week's paper that the typing class started at 7:00. It should be 7:30 p.m., as do all the classes start at this time with the exception of volleyball, which begins at 8:00 p.m. on the designated days and will run through February and March.

4-H Selects Two Delegates For Salem

Roger Doherty, 17, Heppner, and Sandi Davis, 17, Irrigon, were selected to represent Morrow county at the annual Oregon 4-H conference, "Know Your State Government," held February 2, 3, and 4 in Salem.

Doherty, a senior at Heppner high school, has been a 4-H member eight years, most of his project being in the livestock division. He served as a junior leader for two years and a camp counselor for three.

Miss Davis, a senior at Riverside high school in Boardman, has seven years 4-H experience in foods, clothing, and knitting.

Hardman and Rhea Creek News

By CHARLOTTE WALKER

Word was received of the death of Mrs. Leatha Hawk, in Hermiston, Jan. 17. Mrs. Hawk was the sister of Floyd Wilhelm, and a niece of Foster Collins. Interment was Jan. 22 at Hermiston. Those attending the funeral from Hardman were: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilhelm and family, Foster Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Medlock.

Those attending the Gay Nine ties dance at Monument Saturday night from Hardman were Mr. and Mrs. Huston Lesley, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Vinson, Mrs. Emma White, and Miss Fran Heath.

Mrs. Velva Becholt had the misfortune to slip on the ice Friday morning and was unable to go to school. This week she has been staying in Heppner, rather than to drive back and forth in the fog and ice.

The H.E.C. of the Rhea Creek Grange had a potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. Eva Wright.

She received her three-year junior leader pin in 1960.

Miss Esther Kirmis, Morrow county extension agent, accompanied the two delegates to this annual 4-H conference. She was one of six extension agents to act as a group leader in this event.

Fourteen members were present. Plans were made for the Pomona Grange meeting Saturday and a card party to be held Feb. 4.

Mrs. Harold Wright went to Monument Monday and visited her mother overnight.

Mr. and Mrs. John DeMoss and family of Moro visited at the Harold Stevens home Sunday. Mrs. DeMoss and Mrs. Stevens are sisters. Also present were Miss Judy Brinda, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Batty, and Gail.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Emil and Wilbur Knighton spent several days visiting friends in Walla Walla, Waitsburg, Kennewick and Richland, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Robinson have been in Ashland for some time, and are expected home around the first of February.

The heavy fog that lasted for a week deposited a thick coating of ice on the telephone and electric wires, causing a lot of work for the repairmen. Phones were out several times, and the electricity was off, for 17 hours Wednesday making a lot of people worry about heat, deep freezes, and water pipes. Local men helped the REA clear ice from the lines. They were: Huston Leslie, Wilbur Knighton, Ivan McDaniels, Harold Stevens, Bob Stevens, L. D. Vinson, Darrel Vinson, Kenneth Batty, and Elmer Palmer. Apologies to anyone not mentioned.

Bob Stevens was in Portland for two days this week.

Cecil McDaniel came home from Ashland and returned Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright drove to Arlington Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel and Cassie visited Wilbur Knighton Sunday on his birthday.

Mrs. Wilbur Van Blockland honored Mrs. Doris Ball Wednesday on her birthday with a tea.

Those present were Mrs. Gene Hall, Mrs. Harold Wright, Mrs. Tom Springer, Mrs. Wilbur Van Blockland, and the honoree, Mrs. Doris Ball.
