4-H RIFLE CLUB

Robert DeSpain and David McLeod, 4-H leaders of the newly organized 4-H Rifle Club, held their initial meeting January 22, at the school cafeteria.

Esther Kirmis was present to give the members the object and purpose of the 4-H clubs and explain a little about them.

Vern Gerberding, Irrigon, was also on hand to help get the club started. Mr. DeSpain tells us that Mr. Gerberding has been very helpful in getting this club started here in Ione.

At the present time the following boys are signed up for the group: Dallas Dazelle, Bonnie Crabtree, Bob DeSpain, Jay Ball, William Akers, Joe Hausler, Jr.

Any boy 11 years old may join with his parents' consent. They are asked to contact Mr. DeSpain or Mr. McLeod.

The purpose of this club is to teach gun safety to the group. The National Rifle Association helps sponsor this organization in affiliation with the 4-H clubs. The boys have to take an examination and receive a certificate or passing to be in this club.

The club will try to get an out-door rifle range along with its other projects.
