Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thornhill and daughters Arla and Tina went to The Dalles Saturday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mead. Sunday they went to Hood River to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long. They also visited Thornhill's brother, J. B. Thornhill, who is employed there.

Mrs. Harold Rash had foot surgery at the Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schunk of Heppner were Sunday visitors at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Coats and Mr. and Mrs. Zearl Gillespie. The ladies are cousins.

Mrs. Ray Conyers was a patient in the Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston from Wednesday till Sunday.

Mrs. Eldon Wilson of Baker is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, caring for Mrs. Brown who recently had surgery.

3 of an inch of rain fell in Boardman over the week end.

Mrs. Emory Lyons and Mrs. Kenneth Wooten were hostesses for the meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of Community Church Wednesday afternoon of last week at the church. Mrs. Bernard Donovan was a visitor.

Mrs. Russell Miller was in charge of the spiritual program, and read "The Last Prayer," taken from Billy Graham's "Decision."

Bandages were rolled to be sent for missionary work.

Pirates Lose Close One

The Riverside Pirates were beaten by four points in a close basketball game with the Ione Cardinals here last Friday night. The Pirates were leading up until the last two minutes of play when a full floor press and two quick baskets by Francis Rea cinched the game. The score was 64-60. Rea also took high scoring honors with 21. John Swanson made 18 and Tom Martin had 10 points for the Cardinals.

Little Don Taylor led the Pirates with 19 points, Robert Obermeier scored 13, Larry West 11, and Basil Beeler 10.

The Riverside Junior Varsity won the preliminary 34-32. Gronquist made 18 for Riverside, 7 of which he got in a come-from-behind effort the Pirates made in the fourth quarter. Klinger was high for the Cardinals with 9.

IONE	64	RIVERSIDE	60
Crabtree	5	Obermeier	13

Jerry, Jimmy, Johnnie and Judy Healy, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Healy of Heppner. Games were played and refreshments were served to all the young guests.

The Ione Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Walter Dobyns February 14. The topic for discussion will be "Annals—Old and New."

The Legion Auxiliary members prepared the ham dinner served to 137 guests Saturday night in affiliation with the Lions Club charter night. Mrs. John Eubanks was in charge of the decorations. She used daffodils, pussy willows and forsythia. The High School and upper grade school girls served, and waited on the tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Palmateer and family were in Hermiston on Sunday. They spent one day last week in The Dalles also.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stefani Jr. and family spent the middle of the week in Portland having dental work done.

Locust Chapter No. 119, Order of the Eastern Star is having a Valentine party on Tuesday, February 14, for all members and their husbands, Masons and their wives and invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Gar Swanson had as their week end guests, two couples here in connection with the Lions Charter night. Mr. and Mrs. Verne Hawn of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Snyder of West Linn. Mr. Hawn was Master of Ceremonies at the Lions charter night.

It was inaccurately reported in last week's Ione news that Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Helker were hosts for a pot-luck dinner. It should have read, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lundell.

Also due to an error somewhere the article concerning the pinocle party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree was not printed. Mrs. Cecil Hicks was co-hostess with Mrs. Crabtree January 28. Wayne Ball received high for men, Mrs. Eldon Tucker high for women, 300 pinocle, Margaret Nichols, low Sharon Crabtree and Jim Morgan received the door prize.

Sunday guests for dinner at Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ball's were Mrs. Bill Nichols and children. Mr. Nichols is in the hospital recovering from surgery.

Elmer Peterson was in Wasco with Gus Jonsen for a few days.

The Ione Legion Auxiliary and Junior Auxiliary collected and sent 56 dozen cookies to the Veterans Hospital at Roseburg. Mrs. John Eubanks was chairman for this project and compliments all those who assisted her.

Ione Schools

By EVELYN JEPSEN

Students on the honor roll for the second nine weeks of school this year are: Seniors, Ken Smouse, Jean Martin; sophomores, Bill Akers; freshmen, Stephen Lindstrom, Arleta McCabe, Tom Heimbigner, and Judy Sherer. Honorable mention students are Jack Crum, Michelle Morrison, Sandra Eubanks, Barbara Bishop, and Merrie Jo Morrison. Congratulations to you students.

Saturday, February 4, was the date of the Sweetheart's Ball. It was a little early this year because this date was the only one open for quite a while. Michelle Morrison and John Swanson were crowned King and Queen. Other candidates for this honor were: Judy Morgan, Jerry Davidson, Cheryl Morrison, Tom Martin, Kathy Rea, Jim Martin, Ed Marick, Jean Martin, Cheryl Corley, Joe Palmer, Jack Crum, Judy Sherer, Ron Crabtree, Geraldine Morgan, JoAnn Turner, Francis Rea, and Arleta McCabe and Ken Klinger. The cafeteria was beautifully decorated in the spirit of Valentines.

Two basketball games are scheduled for this week end; both are at the opponent's town. Ione plays Stanfield the 10th and Arlington on the 11th.

Most of the seniors are busily making plans for college next year. Some have already decided on their college and have filled out applications and now they're working toward scholarships.
