Soroptimists Send Bulbs To Patients

Members of the Soroptimist club potted, wrapped and delivered 19 tulip and hyacinth bulbs to the nursing home patients at the hospital for valentines day. Each of the potted bulbs had a valentine message from the Soroptimist members. Mrs. Theta Stratton assisted with the delivery of the bulbs. Lovelle Dick donated the pots and helped with selecting paper and ribbon for wrapping.

Reception and Initiation of New Members Main High-Lights of Rainbow Meeting

Ruth Assembly No. 50 Order of the Rainbow for Girls gave a reception February 20 at the Masonic Hall in honor of Marlene Griffin, Grand Representative to the state of Florida. Marlene was introduced and escorted to the East. Marlene gave an interesting talk about her correspondence with a girl in Florida comparing Oregon assemblies with assemblies in Florida. Other grand officers introduced and escorted to the East were Miss Phyllis Thornhill, Grand Representative to the State of Kentucky, Mrs. Ruby

Many Winners At Annual Card Party

The gala event of the year was the Elks annual and ladies card party held at the Catholic parish hall Saturday afternoon. The room was attractively decorated with hearts and cupids depicting the Valentine season. The Elks officers and trustees' wives Mrs. W. H. Wolff, Mrs. Harley Young, Mrs. Everett Keithley, Mrs. Leroy Gardner, Mrs. Kemp Dick, Mrs. Bob Flatt, Mrs. Pat O'Brien, Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Mrs. Glen Ward, Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Mrs. Jack Van Winkle, Mrs. Ray Ferguson, and Mrs. Milton Morgan had charge of the card party, assisting about the rooms and serving coffee, tea, and cookies to bridge and pinocle players throughout the afternoon.

Several of the out-of-town guests were entertained in the lovely tea room at the parish hall. Approximately 125 people took part in the afternoon program and prizes were awarded the winners. High in bridge went to Mrs. Ed Dick, second to Mrs. Floyd Worden, and low to Mrs. Harriet HasBrueck of Milton-Freewater. The winners in pinocle were Mrs. Gerald Rea, high; Mrs. Charles Beckett, second; and Mrs. Van Hubbard, low.

This year, another new attraction was added with the awarding of five door prizes to Mrs. Marshall Lovgren, Mrs. Orville Cutsforth, Mrs. Bud Springer, Mrs. Elaine George, and Mrs. Gay Harshman.

Collins, Mrs. Jim Norene, Mrs. Elaine George, Mrs. Gene Hall, Mrs. Eddie Gunderson, Mrs. Dick Meador, Mrs. Bill Blake, and Mrs. Bill Barratt.

Archie Padberg Honored With Surprise Dinner

The Archie Padberg home was the scene of a dinner party Thursday evening when Mrs. Padberg entertained with a surprise party honoring her husband's birthday. Attending the family get-together were Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash, Prudy Casebeer and Mary Evelyn Tucker all of Heppner; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Tucker and family, Ione; and Mr. and Mrs. Oris Padberg, Lexington.

Becket, from Arlington, Grand Deputy for the Order of Rainbow Girls in Oregon. Sandra Jones past Grand Representative to Florida. Judy Cochell and Doris Morris, past Grand Choir members of Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Creswick, Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron of Ruth Chapter No. 32 were introduced and escorted to the East.

The program consisted of two piano solos by Judy Cochell, Summertime and Patriots by George Gerahwin. A skit—Cannibal King, an original by Ginny Moore, Pam Cochell and Ginny Lou Turner. An addenda presenting a bouquet of pink rosebuds and gift from Ruth Assembly was given by Sherrill Olson, Diann Warren, Bernice Thomson, Diann Fullerton, Brenda Young, and Diane Schaffitz.

Immediately following the program refreshments were served. During the meeting preceding the reception Vicki Kreimeyer, Teresa Munkers, Leora Van Winkle, and Kathy Melby were initiated into the Order of the Rainbow for Girls. Board members for the Order of Rainbow for Girls are Mrs. Don Turner, Mrs. Paul Webb, Mrs. Roy Quackenbush, Mrs. James Thomson, Mrs. Inez Huffman, Mrs. Lewis Halvorson, Ione, Dr. E. K. Schaffitz and Paul Jones.

Mrs. McMurtry Degree Treasurer

The Degree of Honor Lodge met Tuesday evening in the Christian church basement with 23 members present and one guest, Mrs. Clayton Sweek. Mrs. Pete McMurtry was elected to fill the vacancy of treasurer which was held by Mrs. Mary Bryant. The Valentine motif was carried out in the decorations and the tea table. Mrs. Bill Farra showed slides taken at the Pendleton Degree of Honor meeting. The next meeting will be Feb. 28 at the Lodge hall with Mrs. Prudy Casebeer and Mrs. Lucille Parrish as the hostesses. Following the meeting, Mrs. Gladys Connor and Mrs. Ed Gonty served refreshments to the members.

Mrs. Munkers Feted At Housewarming

Mrs. Riley Munkers was pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening at her home with a housewarming party. A group of friends arrived armed with cards, tables, and refreshments and enjoyed an evening of pinocle and visiting Mrs. Munkers at her new home. Guests were Mrs. Haskell Sharard, Mrs. Charles Collins, Mrs. Merritt Gray, Mrs. Howard Pettyjohn, Mrs. Glenn Smith, Mrs. Leroy Gardner, Mrs. Ned Sweek, Mrs. Harold Laird, Mrs. Don Beltenbrock, and Mrs. John Bergstrom.
