Stewart-Cannon Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Stewart of Halfway, Ore., formerly of Heppner, announce the engagement of their daughter Alice Faye Stewart to Gary Wilson Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cannon of Milwaukie, Ore.

Miss Stewart, a senior at the University of Oregon School of Nursing in Portland, is affiliated with Sigma Kappa sorority on the University of Oregon campus in Eugene. Mr. Cannon, a 1957 graduate of the University of Oregon, is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. He is currently employed by the Crown Zellerbach corporation in Portland.

The couple plans a December wedding.

Local Bridge Players Take Honors In Play At La Grande, Sunday

Several bridge players from here journeyed to La Grande Sunday to enter the Spring Festival Open and walked away with the top prizes. This event is sponsored by the La Grande unit of the American Contract Bridge League and was held at the Sacajawea hotel.

LaVerne Van Marter and Mrs. Bill Collins won high for east-west and Mrs. Bill Labhart and Mrs. Van Marter won high for north-south. They were awarded trophies which are to be inscribed and will be mailed to them.

Others going from here were Mrs. Marshall Lovgren, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Wolff, and Bill Collins.

The group enjoyed a no-host dinner with the other players at the hotel following the play and returned home Sunday evening.

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jepsen, Ione, announce the engagement of their daughter, Anna, to Fred Larson of Portland.

Miss Jepsen is a 1956 graduate of Ione high school and graduated from the Emanuel Hospital School of Nursing in 1959. She is now a nurse at the Bodine-Cantrell clinic in Portland, working for Dr. Robert E. Thornfeldt.

Mr. Larson, an Oregon State University graduate, is a field representative for the Oregon Credit Union League.

The young couple have planned a spring wedding.

Bridge Club Uses St. Patricks Theme

Mrs. Lowell Gribble and Mrs. Mervin Leonard entertained the What's Trump bridge club at the Leonard home Wednesday afternoon.

St. Patrick's Day theme was used attractively about the room and the hostesses served salad and coffee to the guests.

Students home for spring from EOC are Connie Anderson, Susy McQuarrie, Bob Huffman, Arthur Burkenbine, Jeanne Collins, Tom Driscoll, Wayne Soward, and Jerry Haguewood.

Mr. and Mrs. Neils Anderson and family were in Portland on Thursday and Friday and visited the Victor Kriemeyers.

Heppner Club Hosts Past Noble Grands

Past Noble Grands of Pauline No. 13, Pendleton; Ualtee, No. 224, Stanfield; Henrietta No. 36, Echo; and Sunbeam No. 180, Hermiston were entertained at a St. Patrick's Day luncheon and program at the I.O.O.F. hall last Friday.

President of the host club, Hazel Bauman, was in charge of the arrangements. The tables were gaily decorated in the day's motif. Unique shamrocks complete with pipes made by Mrs. Bauman, were pinned on each guest as they signed the guest book.

Nearly 45 ladies were seated at the tables for the chicken pie luncheon following the blessing given by Florence Nye. Introductions were made and Heppner school students, Lorraine Leong and Carolyn Slocum sang two duet numbers, Barbara Gribble and Sheridan Wyman entertained with a tap dance, and concluding the program Mattie Green and Altha Kirk each gave humorous readings.

Coming from her Portland home to attend this annual affair of the Pendleton and Heppner clubs, was Sara McNamer, P.N.G. of the Sans Souci lodge, Heppner.

P.N.G.s from Hermiston were Gladys Hale, Lillith Guderian, Orrel Lewis, Mabel Ritzinger, and Mae Kennison; from Pendleton they were Noble Grand Vivian Hartley and P.N.G.s Estella Embysk, Emily Hart, Olivia Griswold, Sadie Moore, Pearl McKee, Emma Peck, Rova Bomboy, Loris Perkins, Eita Millett, Lenora Perry, Ruth Marlin, Clara Woods, Janet Wickham, Gladys Scheer, Luella Fletcher, and Inez Huffman, and from Stanfield, Past Noble Grand, Iris Van Houte.
