Mrs. Collins Honored At Bridge Club

Mrs. Wallace Wolff entertained last week with a farewell party for Mrs. Charles Collins.

Guests were members of the Nine Tricks bridge club who brought handkerchiefs for a surprise shower for the honoree.

The rooms were decorated with spring flowers. Mrs. Wolff served dainty sandwiches in the form of hearts, diamonds, spades and clubs for refreshments.

Winning at bridge were Mrs. Robert Jones, high; Mrs. Dick Wilkinson, second. Mrs. Robert Abrams won the travelling prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins are moving to Hood River where he has been transferred by Standard Oil Co.

Musical Program Set At Grange Meeting

The Lexington Grange will meet April 8 at 8:00 p. m. in the Grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hausler of Ione will entertain with Spanish music and folk dances preceding the regular business meeting. Visitors are invited to the program.

Ione Hosts TOP's District Meet

The annual spring district meeting of the Tops club was held Monday, March 27, at the Ione Grange hall, with the Ione Big Tops Club as hostess.

Mrs. Maravene White was mistress of ceremonies. Forty-nine members of six Tops clubs were present.

Each club leader gave a report of her chapter since the October 1960 district meeting at Boardman.

The program was presented by each chapter contributing a number. Slides of the previous district meetings were shown.

Mrs. Mildred Faircloth of Pendleton, district captain, gave an interesting and encouraging talk on the work of the club.

The dining room was decorated in the Easter theme and a local dessert was served.

The clubs attending were Pendleton Tops Club; Be Lighters, Lexington; Size Shrinkers, Hermiston; Twilghter Scalers, Pendleton; Lighter Brighters, Boardman; and Ione Big Tops.

The next meeting will be held in Pendleton in October.

Tenth Birthday Party For Susan Chally

A tenth birthday party for Susan Chally was held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Chally, on Monday.

Members of the Merry Bluebirds who helped her celebrate were Marcia Jones, Diana Jackson, Georgina McDaniel, Teresa Harshman, Cheryl Edwards, Pamela Hughes, Karen and Kathy Blake, Brette Howell, Christy Watkins and Debbie Reynolds. Also present was Susan's sister, Laura, and Mrs. Floyd Jones, leader of the bluebirds.

A birthday cake and ice cream were served following the games played and an Easter egg hunt held on the court house lawn.

St. Monicas Plan Various Projects

The St. Monicas Club meeting held last week at the Jim Norene home outlined various projects for spring and the Easter program.

After the Easter services, doughnuts and coffee will be served in the parish hall.

The Guild has planned a card party at the parish hall on Monday, April 3 and on April 7 they will hold a door to door sale of doughnuts in Heppner, Lexington, and Ione.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Howard Cleveland on April 18 with Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter as co-hostess. All members are urged to attend this important meeting.
