

Over The Tee Cup

By JACKIE LABHART

It "wood" seem that all the spring "putting" in the yard has been set aside for "divoting" on the golf course, most golfers seem to have a "green" fascination more than a green thumb. Sunday afternoon we had a "spur of the moment" two-ball foursome and those playing were Beverly Gunderson and Harry O'Donnell, Harlan McCurdy and Velma Glass, Phil Mahoney and Jan Agee, Hazel Mahoney and Conley Lanham, Dee Gribble and Eddie Gunderson, Donna McCurdy and Gordon Hutchins, Phyllis Hutchins and Clint Agee, Clint McQuarrie and Gene Case, Marie McQuarrie and Tom Glass, the Bill Blakes and Vi Lanham, and "Grib" and I. New golf balls were awarded to Shirley, Bev and Harry for taking the most strokes on No. 5, Velma and Harlan parred the most holes, and "Grib" and I shot low gross score.

TWO-BALL THOUGHTS: I wonder why Bev and Harry were so sure they were going to win a golf ball... If Eddie could throw his club farther than he hit his ball again... what club Bill Blake used to get such a powerful drive on No. 4... why in the world "Grib" and I couldn't putt... if Phil's marlin (caught in Mexico) was as tough to reel in as trying to hit a straight ball on our little fairways.

Seven wind-blown, wornout, wearisome, woeful women tried playing golf in our ladies day competition Tuesday, but needless to say "the North wind did blow" (in fact it even blew the golf balls off the tees) and we just couldn't fight it for the complete nine holes... but I think

Grand Worthy Advisor Visits

Grand Worthy Advisor, Joan Rose, of Vale, visited the Heppner Order of Rainbow for Girls at a special meeting Thursday evening. Also present for the occasion were Mrs. Hazel Graham, Tillamook, supreme deputy for the state, and Mrs. Ruby Beckett, Heppner, supreme deputy of the Rainbow for Girls.

Mrs. Graham spoke to the girls about the Rainbow organization. A musical program was presented with a girls' trio by Pam Co-chell, Ginny Moore, and Ginny Lou Turner and a piano solo by Ginny Lou.

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Accordion Recital By Students

Caroline Fleming will present her accordion students in a recital on Sunday, April 23, at 3:00 p.m. in the Methodist church basement.

Students from Heppner, Lexington, and Lone will participate. The mothers will serve refreshments after the recital.

PITTSBURGH PAINTS
Keep that "PAINTY" look longer

the "fearless females" deserve mentioning for their untiring dedication to golf... they were Cork Norene, Daisy Collins, Marie McQuarrie, Hazel Mahoney, Dee Gribble and myself.

Others seen on the course during the past week were Maxine, Ronnie, and David Gray, LaVerne Van Marter, Earl Ayres, Ed Bennett, Bert Huff, Pete Cannon, the Salters, Gordon Pratt, Raymond Ferguson.

HEARD ON THE "LINK LINE"
... that Gordon Pratt shot a 38 the other day... that Cy Perkins, an excellent golfer from Hood River, was giving lessons on the course Saturday (and Dee and I are still stiff from trying to learn a new back swing and follow through... our muscles just don't seem to cooperate).

I can just barely see in the "tee leaves" that the executive committee of the Willow Creek Country Club is really planning some exciting activities for this golf season... can't quite read them clearly enough yet to let you know just exactly what is planned but should be able to soon.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS:
Another two-ball foursome is planned for this Sunday at 2:00 and every golfer (good or bad) should plan to attend as we have such fun. Also Dee Gribble has a spare No. 8 and No. 5 iron that were found on the course, so if anyone is missing these irons please contact her.

That does it for this week, but join me for next "tee time," as I am usually here.

Mrs. Joe Wright Local Unit Chairman

Heppner extension unit met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sam Turner.

The project, "Soaps and Detergents" was presented by the leaders, Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Keithley Blake. They demonstrated and explained the differences between soaps and detergents and which are best suited for use in each locality.

Officers for the coming year were elected with Mrs. Joe Wright, chairman; Mrs. Bud Peck, vice chairman; Mrs. Frank Connor, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Leta Humphreys, county committee woman.

The Homemakers Festival will be in Boardman on May 16. At this time the new unit officers will be installed. For those who are planning to attend, Mrs. Paul Warren asks that they purchase their tickets from her as early as possible.

Heppner unit will have its next meeting May 9 at the home of Mrs. John Lane. The project will be Good Weight for Good Health to be given by leaders, Mrs. Edna Turner and Mrs. Merritt Gray.

Birthday Party

Mrs. E. C. Dougherty, Charles Bailey and Gerald O'Malley were hosts for a birthday party honoring Elaine George on her birthday Saturday at the Dougherty home.

The guests enjoyed the buffet supper and dancing in the evening. Elaine was presented a birthday cake which was served to everyone.

John Wightman and daughter, Mrs. Claud Graham returned Wednesday night after a stay in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe in Hyderwood, Washington. While there they attended the installation of Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe as Royal Matron and Patron in the Walter F. Meier court of Amaranth at Winlock, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ayers and family were in Portland over the week end to get acquainted with their new granddaughter, Kelley Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gale McClintock.

Mrs. Charles Barlow returned to Heppner Friday after having spent the winter with her daughters in Milwaukee and Eugene.
