Here's what PP&L customer Mrs. Monte Weddle says about electric living:

"Electricity is a really big helper around our farm... and it's such a bargain!"

"With all the canning I do, I certainly wouldn't like to do it the tiring way my mother did—without electricity! We have 41 appliances, but I suppose our home freezer is the favorite. We keep it filled with the fruits and vegetables I put up, and the beef and pork we raise. All this electric help costs just 52¢ a day—it's the best value in our budget!"

Like Mrs. Weddle, thousands of other Pacific Powerland homemakers are using lots of PP&L electricity these days—more and more all the time!
