Larry Tibbles and Mary Slocum Crowned King And Queen Of The Junior-Senior Prom

The high-light of the school year and most especially for the seniors, is the annual Junior-Senior banquet and prom.

This year the banquet was held Thursday night in the Catholic parish hall and the prom on the following evening in the high school gym with Larry Tibbles and Mary Slocum crowned King and Queen during intermission, at which time they were presented gifts.

The banquet, chaired by Sandra Harshman, started at 6:30 p.m. with a delicious steak dinner prepared by the junior students' mothers and served by the sophomore girls. Al Lamb, manager of the Morrow County Grain Growers, was guest speaker and spoke on his recent trip thru the Strategic Air Command headquarters.

Pam Cochell, Ginny Moore, and Ginny Lou Turner, members of the freshman trio, accompanied by Judy Cochell at the piano, sang two numbers.

Besides the juniors and seniors, special guests were school board members, teachers and the office staff.

The tables were decorated with silver painted sage brush with small diplomas attached to the branches.

On Friday night from 9 to 1 a.m. the prom was in full swing at the gym which had been beautifully decorated using the theme "Orchid Twilight." Many crepe paper orchids and crepe paper decorations were made and used about the room, complete with an orchid throne for the queen. Tables and chairs were placed cafe style around the room with a circular refreshment bar at one end. Cookies and punch were served by eighth graders Sherrill McDonald, Bruce Spencer, Dean Lovgren, Wayne Evans, Daren McCurdy, Pat Van Winkle, Tana Valentine, and Kathy Ray. All this was headed by Libby Van Scholack, chairman.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Daggett, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kirk, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cantonwine.

The music was played by the Matt Svetich orchestra of Pendleton to a large crowd of high school students and to over 40 parents who watched the dance.
