Munkers Celebrate Wedding Anniversary

A no-host party honored Mr. and Mrs. Archie Munkers on their 25th wedding anniversary on Sunday evening at Stefan's. The tables were decorated with white and pink peony centerpieces aided by two white candles decorated with a silver "25." Orange blossoms were placed on the edges of the tables.

A lovely white two-tiered cake, with a "25" and "Happy Anniversary" on top was surrounded by a wreath of pink roses tipped with silver which was a gift of Mrs. Munkers' twin sister, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen.

Guests sitting at the head table were Mr. and Mrs. Munkers, her mother, Mrs. Hattie Crabtree, and his mother, Mrs. Frank Munkers. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Munkers, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Munkers, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Art Watkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crabtree.

Ione Citizens Take Extended Trip East

Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann and Mrs. Edmond Bristow left Ione on April 25 for an extended trip that took them to Elk City, Oklahoma where they visited with Lieut. and Mrs. John Bristow. Mrs. Bristow remained with her new grandson, Douglas and to spend Mothers Day with her son.

The Rietmanns went on to Little Rock, Arkansas, Springfield and St. Louis, Mo. From there they motored on to Indianapolis, Ind. and on to Sarnia, Ontario, Can. where they spent four days with Mrs. Rietmann's cousins, Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Hillary and sons. While there they visited the birthplace of Mrs. Rietmann's father, E. J. Bristow, at Arthur, Ontario and saw many of the old buildings and places where businesses are still carried on in the same buildings as when her father lived there.

Returning to the U. S. they ferried across Lake Michigan to Wisconsin, driving through Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas where they visited the Eisenhower Museum at Abilene and on to Elk City to pick up Mrs. Bristow. They returned home by way of Denver, Colorado, Laramie, Wyoming, Montpelier, Blackfoot and Arco, Idaho and home.

The trip covered 7500 miles and took 24 days. Among the interesting things they viewed on their return trip was a visit to the Denver Museum, Little America in Wyoming, Bear Lake in Utah and Craters of the Moon National Monument in Idaho, returning to Ione on May 18.
