Lexington Grange Enjoys Program At Regular Meet

By DELPHA JONES

Lexington Grange No. 726 met Saturday night with Past Master Vernon Munkers in the chair. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, and a report on a sick member, Burton Peck, was made. It was reported all sick members had been duly remembered.

Reports were given by the insurance agent, Cecil Jones, and the agriculture chairman, Kenneth Smouse. At this time the H.E.C. chairman, Lee Wagenblast, made a report and announced the Wheat League meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. June 19 at the hall, after which the H. E. C. will serve.

A patriotic program was enjoyed with the following giving numbers: Keith Nelson, accordion; Charles Nelson, saxophone; Cherilyn Smouse, piano; and Karen Nelson, flute; after which Kenneth Smouse showed the film, "Freedom Road." A potluck supper was served following the program.

Mrs. Laura Haviland of The Dalles has returned to her home after several months visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wagenblast. Mr. and Mrs. Dewie Wagenblast motored to Lexington Sunday after Mrs. Haviland.

Delphine Meracle had the misfortune to break her arm Saturday when she fell from a horse. She spent the night in Pioneer Memorial Hospital. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Meracle.

O. G. Breeding and daughter, Mrs. Floyd Smith, and two children motored to Portland Wednesday after Mrs. Breeding who has been at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis. While there they attended the graduation exercises of their grandson, Jay Matthews, from the eighth grade.

Mrs. L. D. Vinson and daughter visited her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Oris Padberg, on Thursday from their home in Monument.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Irvin motored to Lexington Wednesday night to bring Mrs. Irvin and children for a couple of weeks' visit with her mother, Mrs. Florence McMillan.

Burton Peck is a patient in Pioneer Memorial hospital recovering from recent surgery. Mrs. Jack Mounts and son, Steve, of Maupin, motored to Lexington on Sunday where Steve remained with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majeske, for a week's visit, and to attend vacation Bible school in Heppner.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt, Mr. and Mrs.

Rev. Austin McGhee Reappointed

The Rev. Austin McGhee attended the annual conference of the Methodist church May 30 through June 2 in Portland. While there, he was reappointed for the third year as pastor of the Methodist church at Heppner.

Rev. McGhee also took part in a meeting of the Oregon Conference Board of Missions of which he is a member.

Memorial Day guests at the Archie Padberg home were Mrs. Nora Myers and Elvera Myers of The Dalles, Pat Myers, Condon, Mrs. Frank Cecil and girls of Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Tucker and sons of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Tucker and children of Ione.

How does he help keep an old American tradition alive?

SELF-reliance or the desire to "do-it-yourself" is an old American custom. Your hardware dealer is a big reason why this tradition continues to thrive. He is constantly alert for new ways to help you fix that leaky faucet, the jammed lock, the broken window.

Service is his business. That's why your hardware dealer stocks literally thousands of items—so that he can serve you at moment's notice. And as your friend and neighbor he helps you in other ways, too. Whatever you decide to do yourself, paint, repair a lamp, clean the piping or shingle the roof, he's ready with sound advice for you.

And how rewarding for you if your hardware dealer gives you S&H Green Stamps.

Today, nearly half the families in America save them.

Your S&H Green Stamps make it possible for you to choose from over 1,500 top-quality, famous brand-name items at your S&H Green Stamp Redemption Store.
