

Lexington Folks Busy With Summer Activities

By DELPHA JONES

Rev. and Mrs. Walter Smith and children, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marquardt and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt and children, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Messenger and children, Carroll Messenger of Lexington and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr., and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Jr., of Hermiton were visitors at Hat Rock on Sunday where they all enjoyed an afternoon of boating following a picnic in the park.

Mrs. W. I. Miller and son Earl were week-end callers at the C. C. Jones home.

Charlene Jones of Portland was a week-end visitor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones and Glenn Eatch of Portland was a week-end visitor at the Gar Leyva home. Miss Jones, Mr. Eatch, Mrs. Miller and son, Mrs. George Irvin and children of Winston, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones and son Kenneth were all dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. W. E. McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete McMillan and children of Grand Ronde were week-end visitors at the home of his mother, Mrs. Frances McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Gentry and children spent Sunday in the mountains and were then guests of her mother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Matthews, at a barbecue dinner in Heppner.

Mrs. Gar Leyva and Mrs. Bernice Wihlon were Portland visitors a couple of days this week.

Fire Department Called
The Lexington fire department was called Monday morning to an extensive grass fire near the Joe Yocum and Cossitt homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwrad Hunt have been recent callers in Tacoma, Wash.

Citizens of Lexington were deeply grieved to hear of the passing of a long-time resident, Burton Peck, Friday of last week.

New Member Welcomed
Holly Rebekah lodge met for its regular session on Thursday night with the N. G. Bertha Hunt presiding. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved and cards sent the sick members.

Delpha Jones was appointed chairman for community service and it was announced that the publicity committee would care for the good of the order scrap book until fall. At this time the convention chairman, Dimple Munkers, gave an outline of her program for fall, and Holly lodge agreed to do the memorial. Cards are to be sent those still owing dues, and accepting donations for the repair on the hall was discussed. Mrs. Hilda Yocum signed the register and we welcomed her as a transfer member from Marion at Wasco. At this time Hilda Yocum was appointed and duly installed as warden, as this office was left open due to the fact that the warden, Margaret Nichols had moved to Ione. Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the refreshment committee in the dining room. There were 12 members present.

Mrs. A. F. Majeske motored to Portland and Maupin last week, taking her grandson Steve Mounts to his home after a visit here with his grandparents.

Marvin Way motored to Goldendale, Wn. Sunday taking Norma Butler to her home there after a visit at the Frank Robinson home. Frankie Robinson and David Cooper accompanied him and will stay for a week's visit.

Recent guests at the L. E. Ruhl home were her uncle, Mont Bundy of Rainier and daughter, Lola Gulker of St. Helens.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson of Portland, formerly Ruth Garrett of Lexington were Lexington callers one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mess of Roseburg, parents of Mrs. Gene Cutsforth, have returned to their home after visiting their son and family. Diana and Tom Cutsforth returned home with them for a visit.

Hugo Leyva of Portland visited Friday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gar Leyva.

Mrs. Greg Leyva spent several days last week in Portland visiting her husband who is attending school there, and with a sister Deanna Steagall who makes her home there.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ruhl have been notified of the death of Mrs. Ruhl's uncle, Hays Stockard, of Pendleton.

Picnic At Cutsforth's

Cutsforth's cabin in the mountains was the scene Sunday of a family get-together and picnic. Those present for this occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cutsforth and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Cutsforth and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cutsforth and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Killenny and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cutsforth and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gorham, Alta Cutsforth and Nell Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Armin Wihlon, local residents and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Zita of Condon.

Mrs. L. E. Ruhl motored to Pendleton on Friday where she met her brother Bob Grey of Mill City who was here to attend the Griffen-Grey wedding in Heppner. Also present at the Ruhls for the wedding were her mother, Mabel Grey and daughter Florence of Hermiton.

Travels To Europe
Miss Fern Bonnell who has retired as a Morrow county teacher is leaving June 30th from New York via the ship America for an eight weeks tour of Europe. The countries which Miss Bonnell is planning to visit are, Ireland, Scotland, Sweden, England, Norway, Denmark, Switzerland and France. She leaves from Spokane on Sunday on the first lap of her trip. When she returns she will make her home in Elma, Wn., where she is engaged to teach the first grade.

Dick and Johnnie Wallace brought to Lexington Monday bringing their brother, Gene home

Two Climb Hood

District attorney Robert Abrams and Robert Jepsen, Ione, climbed the south slope of Mt. Hood June 3.

The two men are members of the Mazamas climbing club. The ascent was the graduation climb for a group of new club members who have been taking climbing instruction.

The group of about 80 stayed at the Mazamas lodge Friday night and started the climb at 1 a. m., returning to the base camp late Saturday afternoon.

Both local men had climbed Hood previously.

from a visit in Pasco. The three boys are visiting their father Hermann Wallace and family.

Larry Henderson Home
Larry Henderson who has been attending basic training in Fort Ord, Calif. arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson for a short visit before returning to Fort Leonardwood, Mo., where he will be stationed.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Peck that their son Keith has recently arrived in Korea where he will be stationed for some time.

Mrs. L. E. Ruhl and son Dick who is home for the summer from school visited a couple of days with another son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Skip Ruhl in Corvallis.

Here's what PP&L customer Mrs. Gordon Reigan says about electric living:
"With electric service to help me, it's just like having a maid..."

"I suppose it's every woman's dream to have a maid. As for me, I have mine—electricity! Besides being a bargain at only 49¢ a day for the use of 40 appliances, electricity brings us pleasures of entertainment so readily through TV and radio!"

Electric living means modern living to thousands of Pacific Powerland homemakers who, like Mrs. Reigan, are using more and more PP&L electricity all the time.

Stop in at your appliance dealer's soon. See the many electric appliances that are ready to work for you and your family. Make full use of PP&L electric service—today's biggest value!
