Janice Martin, Lt. Wheelhouse Married Here

Miss Janice Marie Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Martin, Heppner, and Lt. Jay Lou Wheelhouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheelhouse, Olex, were united in marriage Sunday, June 18, at the Methodist church in Heppner.

An all white flower arrangement was used in decorating the church. The three o'clock double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Austin McGhee before four tall white baskets of all white gladioli, two altar vases of white gladioli, and two seven candlelit candelabras of white. Another basket of the same was placed in the entrance hall. The family pews were decorated with white ribbon and glameillas.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a floor length white taffeta gown with long fitted sleeves and an extended waistline. A sequined sculptured cut lace applique adorned the neckline. Also three lace appliques extended down the front of the princess panel skirt. There were small white covered buttons at her wrists and down the back, and a large bustle bow. Her finger tip veil was held in place with a cap of sequins, pearls, and orange blossoms. Her bridal bouquet was of white glameillas and stephanotis with white ribbon streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jack West, sister of the groom. Miss Lee Walcott and Mrs. Barbara Hubbard were bridesmaids. The attendants' dresses were of embroidered turquoise taffeta with turquoise net hats and matching satin slippers. Their bouquets were of white glameillas tied with turquoise ribbon net.

Miss Fran McLeod, cousin of the bride, and Miss Susan Wheelhouse, sister of the groom, were candle lighters. Their dresses were plain turquoise taffeta, of the same design as the attendants. They had wrist corsages of glameillas and pink rosebuds.

The mother of the bride wore a pink lace sheath dress and pink accessories. The mother of the groom wore a beige and blue sheath dress with blue and white accessories. Their corsages were white glameillas centered with a pink rosebud.

Acting as best man for his brother was Lee Wheelhouse, Jack West, brother-in-law of the groom, Mike Healy, cousin of the bride, and Gary Stein ushered.

Gordon Pratt sang "I Love You Truly," "The Wedding Prayer," and "O, Perfect Love," accompanied by Virginia Turner at the organ.

A pink and white theme was carried out at the reception in the church basement. Cutting the four-tiered wedding cake were Mrs. Alvin Wagenblast, Mrs. David McLeod, Mrs. Corliss McLeod, aunts of the bride, Mrs. William Marshall, Mrs. Claude Graham, and Mrs. Joe Franke. At the coffee service were Mrs. Walt Nation, Mrs. Phil Paine, Mrs. Dick Chinnock and Mrs. Roy Kirk. Miss Meredith Thomson poured the punch.

Miss Barbara Walter and Miss Fern Albert had charge of the gift table while the guest book was under the direction of Miss Barbara Wallace and Miss Judy Cochell. Also assisting was Sheila Healy, cousin of the bride, who passed the rice and the groom's cake.

The bride attended OSU where Lt. Wheelhouse graduated in 1959 and was affiliated with Theta Zeta fraternity. They will be at home at Dave Williams Air Force Base in July where he will be T-33 jet instructor.

Following the reception a buffet dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left for Victoria, B. C. to spend a week. For going away the bride wore a pink flowered silk sheath dress with a pink linen jacket lined in the dress material with pink and white accessories.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: A. W. McLeod of Amity; Mr. and Mrs. Merton Stein and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stephens, The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Corliss A. McLeod, Vancouver, Wn.; Corliss B. Andrews, Spokane, Wn.; Mrs. Phil Paine, Aloha; Mrs. Dick Chinnock, Mrs. Lola Clelland, Mrs. Hortense Martin, Miss Barbara Walters, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Martin and Pat, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Franke and Richard, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Orlow Martin, Dean Martin, Mrs. Gladdis Bucholtz and Jaque, of Moro; Leroy Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Martin, Kent;

MR. AND MRS. MICHEAL GRAY, were married June 11 at the All Saints' Episcopal church in Heppner.

Mabel Griffin, Micheal Gray Exchange Vows

Mabel Marlene Griffin, daughter of Mrs. Phil Griffin, and Micheal Lee Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Gray, all of Heppner, were united in marriage Saturday, June 10, at the All Saints' Episcopal church. The 10 o'clock single ring ceremony was officiated by Father Bruce Spencer before members of the family.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Norman Griffin, Portland, wore a beige suit with pink accessories and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations with a pink rosebud corsage in the center.

The bride's only attendant, Miss Elaine Laird as maid of honor, chose a pink flowered print dress with pink accessories and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Ronald Gray was best man for his brother. The usher was Forrest Burkenbine, nephew of the bride.

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore a blue silk print dress with white accessories. The groom's mother wore a blue suit with white accessories and the groom's grandmother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink carnations.

In carrying out the pink and white color theme, pink gladioli were used as altar flowers. Mrs. J. O. Turner played the organ, accompanying Elaine Laird who sang, "I Love You Truly."

A reception for the young couple and their families was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother. After the newlyweds had cut the first piece of cake, Mrs. L. E. Ruhl, aunt of the groom, continued with the cutting of the cake. Mrs. Herb Case, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Stanley Cox, sister-in-law of the bride, poured at the tea table. The tables were decorated with pink and white peonies.

The groom, a 1960 graduate of Heppner high school, is attending the General Motors school in Tigard where the young couple is residing. The bride graduated from Heppner high school in 1961.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding and reception were Mrs. Mabel Gray and Florence, Hermiston; Mrs. Verda Ritchie, Norman Griffin and son Norman, all of Portland; Robert Gray, Mill City; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ruhl and son Richard, Lexington. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Gray, Ronald and Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Case, Arthur, Carole, and Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cox and Dianne, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schaffitz, Dianne and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Burkenbine, Elaine Laird, Mrs. Robert Stevens, Rev. Spencer and Mrs. Griffin.
