

Former Employees Honor Phil Blakneys

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Blakney were honored guests at the Frank Hamlin home Thursday when the employees of Phil's Pharmacy entertained for them.

A social hour was followed by a barbecue supper on the Japanese lantern-lit patio. Arrangements of carnations and old-fashioned pinks carried out the oriental mood.

The Blakneys were presented with a nice gift by their employees.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Myers, new owners of the store, formerly of Hermiston.

Others besides the honored couple, the Myers, and the Hamlins, were Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Hughes, Mrs. Martha King, and Francine Moyer. Mr. and Mrs. Creston Robinson were on vacation and unable to attend.

The Jim Angel family of Portland were guests Saturday and Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Don Munkers.

TO THE EDITOR . .

Dear Sir:

It was extremely thoughtful of you to send me a copy of your June 29 issue featuring a welcome to Morrow County. I read it all with much interest and considerable nostalgia.

Although I spent all of my high school years in Ione, we moved to the Eight-Mile area soon after graduation and Heppner became our "home town." Both Ione and Heppner, therefore, occupy sentimental spots in my heart.

Again, thanks very much. Should you have occasion to visit the valley, be sure to drop by. I hope to get to eastern Oregon again sometime soon and will visit you in your new location.

Cordially yours,
R. E. Lieuallen

Dear Sir:

Just a line to enclose with my renewal for another year to the "Heppner Gazette-Times."

I lived in Ione for seven years and your paper seems like letters from home. Needless to say I enjoy it very much.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

Even though Arlington doesn't have a newspaper, I know that your paper is sold there.

I'd like to express my sincere appreciation to the people of Arlington for their hospitality and thoughtfulness.

It was an extremely hot day in June when two friends and I stopped there seeking an air-conditioned motel. The heat had "got" me. An attendant at the
