

Summer Wedding Held In Pendleton For Judith Thompson

Judith Rae Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thompson of Pendleton, and former Heppner residents, became the bride of Kent Rothrock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rothrock of Pendleton, in an evening ceremony July 2. The wedding was held at the Episcopal church of the Redeemer, with the Rev. Don Walster, rector, reading the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white cotton eyelet embroidered organza, fashioned with bell sleeves, bows at the fitted bodice and a floor length bouffant skirt. Her finger-tip veil fell from a halo of orange blossoms and she carried a mother of pearl Bible brought from Jerusalem by Mrs. Donald Grilley and from which cascaded white orchids, stephanotis and lily.

Janet Thompson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Karen Rothrock, sister of the groom, Lee Ann Meserve of Portland and Mary Oveson of Salt Lake City, Utah. They wore identical gowns of ice blue silk organza trimmed in Venice lace, matching picture hats and carried white baskets of delphinium, daisies and bachelor buttons.

Michael Kilby was best man. Ushers were Terry Thompson of Heppner, brother of the bride, Richard Hemingway of Bend, Dale Ramsay of Corvallis, Curtis King and Richard Cook.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Pendleton country club. Those from Heppner who served or assisted about the rooms were Mrs. Terry Thompson, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Paul Webb, Jr., aunt of the bride, Mrs. Claude Graham, Mrs. Ronald Currin, Shannon Mahoney and Beverly Donovan of Boardman.

Others attending from the Heppner area were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb, Nat and Rebecca,

Nine Tricks Meet At Wolff Home

Mrs. W. H. Wolff entertained the Nine Tricks bridge club at her home last Thursday evening with two tables in play.

She served a cool and tasty dessert of pineapple sherbet surrounded with fruit salad to the members and two guests, Mrs. Jim Driscoll and Mrs. Gordon Pratt.

Mrs. Bill Stewart won high. Mrs. Pratt second, Mrs. Harold Laird was low, and Mrs. Rod Murray won the traveling prize.

Van Marters Host Birthday Dinner

Little Paul Van Marter was the honored guest at a birthday dinner Sunday given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, at their home.

Besides the family, others present to help celebrate Paul's third birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Runkion, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ball and grandchildren, Derrinda and Doug Steiger, Mrs. Elaine George and sons, Kit and David, and Ronny Flug.

Crabtree Relatives Spend Time Here

Mrs. Leo Crabtree of Lone was in Salem last week visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Elancho Schoelar. While there, they were joined by her aunt and uncle from Canada and by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dalweg of Forest Burg, Alberta Canada, their daughter Penny, and Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Scheelar of Vancouver, B. C.

The entire group motored to Ocean Lake where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Don Scheelar and family who are vacationing there.

Mrs. Crabtree returned to her home on Thursday, accompanied by Mrs. Scheelar, Mr. and Mrs. Dalweg and Penny, and Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Scheelar for a visit with the Crabtree family. Mrs. Crabtree and the Dalweg family had not seen each other for 31 years. On Saturday, Mrs. Crabtree returned the relatives to Salem, returning to Lone on Monday.

Former Heppnerite Honored With Party

Mrs. Bud Wagoner, former Heppner resident and now of Cutbank, Mont., was guest of honor Wednesday night at a bridge party at the home of Mrs. Riley Munkers with Mrs. Don Bennett, and Mrs. Bill Heath as co-hostesses, serving cooling banana splits as dessert.

Three tables of bridge were in play with Mrs. Wagoner winning high. Mrs. Wayne Prock, second and Mrs. Clint Agee received low.

Other guests present were Mrs. Jim Prock, Mrs. Jack Healy, Mrs. Creston Robinson, Mrs. Don Bell-embrock, Mrs. Ilene Wyman and Mrs. Glen Ward.

Announcement Made For July 22 Wedding

The marriage of Miss Carol Louise Schaad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schaad of Pendleton, to Paul James Stout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stout of Heppner, will be solemnized Saturday, July 22, at the First Christian church in Pendleton. The ceremony will be read at 2:00 p. m., with a reception immediately following in the church parlors.

The couple extends an open invitation to friends who are interested in attending.

Applegate-Slocum Marriage Announced

Mrs. Frieda Slocum announces the marriage of her daughter, Frances Ann, to Richard Applegate, son of Mrs. Gertrude Applegate, July 5 in a private ceremony in Stevenson, Wn.

Both are graduates of Heppner high school. Richard is employed for Tum-A-Lum Lumber company in Heppner.

The young couple is making its home in Lexington.

Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn Honored at Shower

A pink and blue shower was held in honor of Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Jr., last Thursday at the Ione Community church reception room. Mrs. Pettyjohn received many lovely and useful gifts. She was assisted at the gift table by Mrs. Dick Sherer and Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn. Tana Tucker and Bonnie Morgan passed the gifts.

A flower arrangement was the centerpiece which graced the table. Tiny mints in the shape of a baby in a blanket were served along with the other refreshments.

Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn Sr. presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Ernest Lundell poured the coffee.

The hostess, Mrs. Earl McCabe, Mrs. David Rietmann, Mrs. Edmond Bristow, Mrs. Lloyd Rice and Mrs. Ray Helmbigner presented Mrs. Pettyjohn with a baby stroller.

There are substitutes in some lines, but none for practice. Kind words never died—they just become victims of ingratitude.

Agent on Vacation

Leaving for the Canadian Rockies Sunday were Miss Esther Kirmis, Morrow county extension agent, and Miss Frances Harvey, Pendleton. Both women plan to visit Banff and Lake Louise area. They will be joined there by Miss Kirmis' sister, Adelheid, from North Dakota. Miss Kirmis will also spend a short time in North Dakota visiting her mother and family. She will return August 3.

Brenner Earns Honors

Gary Brenner, student at the University of Oregon, made the university's honor roll for the spring term. It has been announced. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brenner of Ione.

Dick Sherman and Dave Bennett, both of Stayton, motored to Heppner July 9 for a short stay with Dick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman. Both are employed at the Stayton Cannery for the summer. The family enjoyed a picnic along Willow Creek in the Cutsforth Park area Sunday evening.

A good look at the family budget reduces the vacation fever.
