

Soroptimists Host 1961 Rodeo Court At Lunch, Program

Members of the Morrow county rodeo court and their mothers were honored guests last Thursday noon at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Soroptimist Club, held at the Wagon Wheel.

The four princesses and their queens were all present to enjoy the hospitality and program planned in their honor. With Queen Joan Moe, were Princesses Marlene Fetsch, Sandra Eubanks, Ronnie Belma and Pat Partlow.

Extending a cordial welcome was the club's president, Mrs. E. E. Gonty. After opening ceremonies and the introduction of club members, the program was presided over by Mrs. John Helffer. Each girl introduced herself and her mother, adding brief remarks about their favorite hobbies and interests, the most common being their love of horses and the riding of them.

Appropriate for the day was the program of movie films in color taken by Fred Mankin at the Wrangler's Grounds last summer. Reining, calf roping and other forms of rodeo horsemanship under competition were displayed by members of the Wrangler Riding club on the June Hey-Day meet. The films were shown by Rod Murray. Two girls of the court, Princesses Marlene and Sandra, were prominent participants in the meet.

In behalf of the court and their mothers, a response of appreciation was given the club by the official chaperone, Mrs. John Eubanks.

Time did not permit the club to take up matters of business. It has several projects planned, however, for the near future, the major one being the float entry for the fair parade.

Mrs. Gonty expressed appreciation to those attending and led the group in closing ceremonies.

Shower Party Fetes Bride-Elect Saturday

Ione—The Community Church reception room was the scene of a bridal shower on July 22 in honor of Miss Maxine Munford of Nampa, Idaho, bride-elect of Gene Rietmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Omar Rietmann of Ione.

Miss Munford was assisted at the gift table by Mrs. Bob Rietmann and Mrs. Bill Rietmann. Mrs. Omar Rietmann cut and served the pink and white decorated sheet cake. Mrs. David Rietmann presided at the coffee table and Miss Diana Wright served the punch.

Pink and white were the decor colors and flower arrangements of these colors adorned the room. A centerpiece of pink carnations and white stock in candelabra graced the table.

Mrs. Kenneth Smouse played two violin numbers accompanied by Arleta McCabe.

Hostesses were Mesdames Robert Jepsen, Watter Jacobs, Dallas Shockley, Arnie Hedman, Pete Cannon, Milton Morgan, Cleo Drake, Bob DeSpain, Lloyd Morgan and Gordon White.

Mrs. Van Marter Compliments Sister

Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter entertained at her home Tuesday night with a bridge party in honor of her sister, Mrs. Roger Stieger, who, with her two children, have been visiting with friends and relatives the past two weeks from their home in Portland.

Guests present for the evening entertainment were Mrs. Wayne Prock, Mrs. James Norene, Mrs. Bill Labhart, Mrs. Elaine George, Mrs. Jim Prock, Mrs. P. W. Mahoney, and Mrs. Gene Hall. From Ione were Mrs. Robert DeSpain, Mrs. Robert Jepsen, Mrs. Ray Boyce, and Mrs. Walter Jacobs. Mrs. Labhart won the high prize, Mrs. Mahoney was second, and Mrs. Norene won third.
