

Joe Hay, Lorraine Tautfest Married in Salem July 16

The wedding of Miss Lorraine June Tautfest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Tautfest of Independence, and Joe David Hay, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hay of Salem, was solemnized Sunday, July 16, at the First Baptist church in Salem.

Rev. Ben Owen officiated at the 2:30 o'clock ceremony. Miss Janice Albert, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles. She wore a white frock with orange dress over taffeta, accented by a wide pink sash.

For her marriage, the bride chose a gown of white peau de sole, fashioned with a full, circular skirt ending in a chapel train. The bodice was enhanced with an all-over design of re-embroidered Venetian lace, stand-up collar and three-quarter length sleeves. The back of the gown was accented with a bustle type bow. A crown of pearls and crystals held in place her fingertip French illusion veil. She carried a Job's Daughters Bible marked with a white orchid and a cascade of stephanotis.

Mrs. Karleen Johnson was the matron of honor and Miss Val Letta Hay, sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid. They wore June rose brocade dresses made with softly pleated skirts with bow accents in front and boat necklines. Their matching headpieces were of the bows with pearl studded circular veils. They carried semi-crescent bouquets of white gladiolus centered with pink fuchsias.

Deanna Singer, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl and she wore a pink frock with cummerbund sash.

James Berger served as best man for Mr. Hay and ushers were Karl Behm and Vernon Coates.

At the reception which followed in the church social hall, Miss Alma Friend, aunt of the groom and Mrs. F. C. Mulvihill poured, Mrs. Hazel Miller, the bride's aunt, and Mrs. Elmer Phillips, aunt of the groom, cut the cake.

For traveling the bride chose a blue sheath dress with white topper and black patent accessories. The newlyweds have been seeing scenic points in Oregon and Idaho and this week-end will be starting permanent residence in Heppner.

Mr. Hay is the assistant county agent, and in charge of the 4-H work here.

Mr. and Mrs. Neils Anderson were among the out-of-town guests present for the ceremony and reception.

Dee Pettyjohn Feted At Birthday Party

An outdoor lawn birthday party was fun-time for Dee Pettyjohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pettyjohn and her friends who helped celebrate her eighth birthday on Wednesday.

The girls enjoyed a noon picnic lunch topped with ice cream cones after the gift opening which added excitement.

The afternoon continued with games and ended with a swimming party at the pool.

Gardners Back Home From Elks Conclave

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Gardner and son Leroy returned Friday from a trip to the national Elks convention at Miami, Fla.

Gardner reports that William A. Wall was elected as grand exalted ruler. Wall is a businessman from Miami Beach, Fla. There were 48 exalted rulers from the 51 Elks Lodges in the state of Oregon at the national convention, in addition to the state president.

Bill Brown was appointed district deputy for this area, and Bernie Urlic and Frank Hise were re-appointed to their former positions.

They began their trip July 5 when Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Winkle took them to Portland. They were met there by Mr. and Mrs. Bud Collins of Hood River. Flying by jet from Portland to Chicago, they changed planes and flew on to Miami by jet with Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers of Pendleton, total flying time of 5 1/2 hours.

The Gardners spent two days sightseeing in and around Miami and returned by way of Shreveport, La., stopping there for a 4-day visit with friends. From there they continued on to Dallas, Texas, San Francisco and on to Portland. After a 2-day stay in Portland they were met there by Bud Collins and taken to Hood River where Mr. and Mrs. Van Winkle picked them up for the trip home.

Pastor Robinson Installed Sunday

Hope and Valby Lutheran churches were honored by the presence of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Foss of Seattle on Sunday. Dr. Foss is the president of the North Pacific district of the American Lutheran church. The visit was for the purpose of officially installing Rev. Kenneth J. Robinson as pastor of Hope and Valby. Following the service at Valby a coffee hour was given and members at Hope remained after the service for a potluck supper.

Dr. Foss was impressed by the work which has been done by the two congregations which are a part of the more than 210 churches in the district of 114,437 baptized members. The North Pacific district covers nearly three-quarters of a million square miles and includes the states of Oregon, Washington and Alaska. Many churches in Idaho are also included.
