Grange Enters Contest

Willows Grange entered a Gold Bond Stamp contest in January to earn points for an electric roaster. Anyone may help the grange earn these points. When redeeming your coupon books, ask for a validated card and turn it into the grange. They receive points for each book validated. Pat Townsend, who is in charge of the contest for the grange urges everyone to send in their signed pledge cards and certificates to her. The time is growing short for the close of the contest. Anyone requesting further information may contact Mrs. Townsend.

New Children's Books Arrive at Library

A number of new children's books have arrived at the Heppner public library and are now ready for circulation, according to Mrs. Blanche Brown, librarian.

Summer Library Hours Reviewed For Public

Those wishing to make use of the city library facilities are reminded that evening and Saturday afternoon hours are kept by the library, as well as being open on Monday and Wednesday afternoons.

City Librarian Mrs. Blanche Brown is on duty from 2 to 5 p. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, and from 7 to 8 p. m. on Mondays and Wednesday evenings, to assist both borrowers of books and visitors with library interests and needs. Any person over six years of age may borrow books on cards showing county residence.

The library constantly receives the latest in best selling books, magazines and periodicals, and welcomes the opportunity to share them with the public. Records show that during the month of August, 1960, a total of 1030 books were checked out.

Among the new books are the following: "Willow Landing," by Govani; "Thorny's Hideaway," by McKin; "Worst Room in the School," by Muehl; "A Filly for Joan," by Anderson; "The Visitors from Oz," by Baum; "Matthew Looney's Voyage to the Earth," by Beatty; "My Friend Mac," by McNeer and Ward; "Tales of a Common Pigeon," by Weeks; "Baba Yaga's Secret," by Ford; "A Bear Called Paddington," by Bond; "One Fish Two Fish Red Fish Blue Fish," by Dr. Seuss; "Green Eggs and Ham," by Dr. Seuss; "Bruno Munari's ABC," by Munari.
