Schaad-Stout Vows Read In Pendleton Church

Carol Louise Schaad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schaad of Pendleton, exchanged wedding vows with Paul James Stout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stout of Heppner, July 22 at an afternoon double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Carman Mell, pastor at the First Christian church in Pendleton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white tulle and lace with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline trimmed with pearls and sequins, cap sleeves and full length bouffant skirt. Her waist length veil was held with a pearl crown and she wore matching mitts carrying a bouquet of gardenia, pink roses, lily of the valley and bouvardia.

Maid of honor was Miss Norma Gollyhorn of Irrigon. She wore a full length pink flocked nylon over taffeta with matching mitts and carried a nosegay of pink roses and lily of the valley.

Best man was Len Ray Schwarz of Heppner and ushers were Don Hiersche, Alfred Furst and Garry Schaad.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Larry Straughan.

The reception followed in the Fellowship hall in the church and was arranged by the Mothers Club of the church using decorations to carry out the pink and white color scheme.

Cutting the four-tier cake was Mrs. Elmer McCormack of Beaverton, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Don Hiersche. Pouring were Mrs. Dean Swan, Mrs. Collins Tucker of La Grande, Mrs. James Parry, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. M. A. Kottmeier of Portland, great aunt of the bride.

Beverly Schaad of La Grande, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. The gift table was attended by Mary Ann Storie and Merlene Teasley, assisted by Bill Schaad and Johnny Swan.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Schaad was attired in a beige ribbon knit dress with gold accessories and wearing a corsage of Tallman roses and gardenias. Mrs. Stout, the groom's mother, wore a pale pink dress with white accessories with a corsage of pink roses and gardenias.

Following a wedding trip to Canada the young couple will be at home in Pendleton after Aug. 1.

Guests included the bride's grandparents, Mrs. Lucy Schaad of Newberg, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCormack of Beaverton. Other guests from out of town were: Miss Elsie Schaad, Vancouver, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. George McCormack, Bend; Mrs. M. A.

Kottmeier, Portland; Mrs. J. A. Clumpner and Mrs. Helen Clumpner, Spokane, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. Collins Tucker, Mrs. Roland Schaad, Miss Beverly Schaad, and Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. E. W.
