

Couple United in Pretty Church Wedding

MR. AND MRS. PATRICK EARL HAMMOND were united in marriage July 15 at St. Patrick's Catholic church, Heppner. The bride is the former Mary Catherine Emert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Emert, Ione, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Elsa Hammond of La Grande. (Cole's Studio)

Saint Patrick's Catholic church, Heppner, was the scene of a double ring ceremony on July 15 at 6 p. m. uniting Mary Catherine Emert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Emert, Ione, and Patrick Earl Hammond, son of Mrs. Elsa Hammond of La Grande. The Rev. Raymond Beard officiated with Jim Swanson and John McElligott serving as altar boys.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautifully attired in her floor length gown of chantilly lace with long pointed lace sleeves and a fitted lace bodice with sequins, and tiny seed pearls complimenting a scalloped square neckline. Her nylon illusion fingertip veil was held in place by a pearl and rhinestone trimmed crown. The bride carried a bouquet of cascading stephanotis centered with a white orchid with lavender throat.

For something old, the bride wore pearl earrings of her grandmother's, Mrs. Mary Emert; something new, a simulated pearl necklace given by the groom; something borrowed, a white lace handkerchief from Mrs. Rose Bergevin; something blue, a garter given by Mrs. Ken Turner which Mrs. Turner wore at her wedding. A penny, minted in the year of her birth, was placed in her shoe by her father.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Rose Bergevin, Ione. She wore a lavender ballerina length dress with matching shoes and net headress. Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Melwald, Enterprise, and Miss Brenda Townsend of Ione. Both wore identical ballerina length orchid dresses with matching shoes and net headresses. All three attendants carried umbrella shaped bouquets of lavender carnations.

Vicki Ekstrom of La Grande was flower girl. She wore an orchid dress with matching net headress and she carried a basket of lavender and white carnations. John Healy of Heppner was ringbearer.

Best man was Charles Simpson of La Grande. Ushers were Bob Woodside of Maupin and Jerry Taal of La Grande.

Miss Marguerite Glavey was organist, with Bill Kenny as soloist. Both are from Heppner.

The altar was beautifully banked with baskets of pink and lavender Glads. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Emert chose a beige sheath dress with bone white and tan accessories. The groom's mother wore a flowered dress of pink and lavender with a white hat and lavender shoes. Both wore orchid corsages. Grandmother of the bride wore a teal blue dress with pink rose bud corsage. Grand aunt, Mrs. Margaret Scott, Oakland, wore a green and tan suit with brown accessories and pink rose bud corsage.

The reception, which followed in the parish hall, was conducted by the Heppner Altar Society. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the four-tier cake, it was then served by Mrs. Phil Emert, Ione, and Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn, Arlington, both aunts of the bride. Pouring were Mrs. Angelo Locati, Walla Walla, Miss Linda Heimburger, Ione. Mrs. Len Schwarz, Heppner and Mrs. Loy Keene, Santa Ana, Calif. Presiding over the gift table were Miss Carol Hynd, Cecil, and Miss Sandy Zachary, Pendleton. Mrs. Ken Turner had charge of the guest book. The groom's cake was distributed by Jerry Healy, Heppner.

Catching the bride's bouquet was Miss Brenda Townsend, bridesmaid at the wedding.

For her traveling ensemble the bride chose a three piece silk and linen suit of beige and tan with tan accessories and a net hat. After a short wedding trip, the young couple will be at home in Heppner.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. Margaret Scott, Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Dee Emert, Walla Walla; Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Locati, Walla Walla; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn, Arlington; Don Boyer and daughter, Martha Jane, John Day; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Witherell and family, Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roe and family, La Grande; Miss Judy Witherell, Pendleton; Leon Severin, Milton-Freewater; Mrs. and Mrs. Norman Swanson and family, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ekstrom, La Grande; Miss Elizabeth Dicks, Madras; Miss Alyce Jack, La Grande; Miss Connie Maynard, La Grande; Miss Vad Kelson, La Grande; Jeff Ziegenhagen, Maupin; Miss Charlene Jones, Portland; Miss Sandy Zachary, Pendleton; Delores Roe, La Grande; Tom Jeanette, La Grande.

Duvall Relations Here For Visit

Mrs. Harry Duvall motored to Goldendale, Wn., Sunday and joined a group of 25 relatives at Booth Memorial State Park.

Returning home with her for a two-day visit were her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Gibson, Fort Collins, Colo.; Oness Gibson, Yakima, Wn.; Mrs. Myrtle Albro, San Bernardino, Calif., brothers and sister of the senior Mr. Gibson who lost his life with eight of his family in a car accident south of Las Vegas, Nev., at the beginning of the July 4th holidays. Also coming home with Mrs. Duvall was her sister, Miss Lenna Waid of Stanfield, who returned home Monday.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Duvall took the Gibsons to Mitchell where they met their nephew, Cloy Gibson of Redmond. They went home with him for a visit and Mrs. Duvall returned to Heppner that evening.

Mark Labhart Invites Friends For Birthday

Mark Labhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Labhart, entertained three boys for dessert at his home Friday evening in honor of his tenth birthday.

The boys completed their evening of fun with a movie at the theater.

Mark's guests were Mike Smith, Larry Pettyjohn, Kevan and Kent Pratt, although Kevan was unable to attend because of the mumps.

Reception Honors Former Teachers

Over 50 guests attended a reception July 25 at the Ralph Scott home when Mr. and Mrs. Scott co-hosted open house with Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Bechtolt in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Juett and two daughters.

The Juett's are both former teachers here. From 1949 through 1952 he was principal of the grade school and she was home economics teacher. They now make their home at Union City, Indiana-Ohio, where he is superintendent of schools. The family stopped off here as house guests of the Scotts for two days while on a trip to Los Angeles, and enjoyed seeing many former pupils and their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Neill entertained the Juett's at lunch also on Tuesday noon before the afternoon and evening reception.

Princesses Are Guests At Chief Joseph Days

IONE—Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks took their daughter, Sandra, and Marlene Fetsch, both redeo princesses, to Joseph on Friday for the Chief Joseph Days celebration. They remained through Saturday for the parade in which the entire Heppner court participated. Mrs. Eubanks reported that approximately 100 girls of royalty were on hand for the affair. All girls and relatives attended a luncheon on Saturday following the parade, and all were guests at the Saturday afternoon show, in which each and everyone was individually introduced. These girls represented royal courts from all over the west.

Sandra competed Friday and Saturday in the barrel race, but did not place. Her horse that she ordinarily rides in these events is suffering a slight limp. It necessitated her using a horse less experienced.

Sandra Harshman At FHA Meeting

The executive council of the Oregon Association of the Future Homemakers of America began a five-day meeting at Delake Monday, according to Miss Bertha Kohlhaugen, director of Home Economics in the State Department of Education.

The nine member council includes Sandra Harshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harshman, P. O. Box 335 of Heppner. Sandra is state parliamentarian of the Future Homemakers of America.

The council, headed by Mary Virginia Speckhart, of La Grande high school, will formulate plans for the 17th annual state meeting of FHA to be held at Oregon State University next spring.

A special state and district officers' workshop will be held at the high school at Taft August 3 to plan for district meetings to be held this fall.
