

zua Ladies Golf
Entertained
Play, Dinner

Willow Creek club lady entertained the Kinzua club in a 9-hole tournament Tuesday morning on the course.

"Nifty putters" from Kinzua joined 10 Willow ladies for a morning of golf and get-togethers and prizes. Winning golfers were Vi Lanham, Heppner and Dorothy Close, Kinzua. High gross honors went to its Bowman, Kinzua, and to Dougherty, Heppner; get-closest to the pin winners Dee Gribble, Heppner, and Mae Nistad, Kinzua; and having the most trouble number 9 were Lavelle Jellick, Kinzua, and Donna McCurdy, Heppner. Other golfing gals were Hulet, Arlene Schroeder, Boring, Jolene Guinn, and Mel Wham of Kinzua. From Heppner they were Kay Robinson, Jan Agee, Helen Schaffitz, and McQuarrie, Cork Norene, and Mahoney, and Arlene.

Following the round of play Kinzua ladies were guests at a luncheon at the Mahoney home with the local gals as hostesses. They served a delicious burger barbecue and buffet sherbet and cookies as well.

For the spunky gals, those who didn't had enough, they added to the golf course after lunch for another 9-hole round. A reminder is made to the golfers of the 2-ball foursome on the course Sunday, starting 10:00 p. m. with the Ed Schaff in charge of the play.

rs. Meador Wins Bridge Friday

Mrs. Don Bellenbrock entertained the Bridgettes at her home Tuesday evening.

There were two tables of bridge in play with Mrs. Dick Meador winning high, Mrs. Bill Smith, second high, and Mrs. Jack Healy, low. The Jack high game went to Mrs. Creston Robinson.

Other guests were Mrs. Bill Lohr, Mrs. Riley Munkers and Mrs. Don Bennett.

At the end of play, Mrs. Bellenbrock served a cool dessert of fish fruit salad topped with strawberry sauce.

rs. Turner on Tour

Frank Turner drove his wife to Portland last Saturday where she joined her sister, Mrs. Sophia Turner, Portland, on a two week conducted tour of Washington and Canada. She is expected to return next Sunday.

Surprise Party
Honors Kit Anderson

Kit Anderson, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Anderson, was surprised Friday evening with a birthday party given by his brother, Doug, and David Morris. The two boys planned the party while Kit and his mother were in Walla Walla checking with the doctor on his recent eye operation.

The boys played games and enjoyed birthday cake and refreshments before attending the show.

Other guests were Earl Morris, Mark Labhart, David Hall, and Mike Smith.

Joe Hays Guests At Barbecue Party

Recent newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hay, were honored with a barbecue supper party in the mountains Sunday evening with members of the county agent's office and their families attending.

Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Anderson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith and family, Esther Kirmis, and the guests.

The group presented Mr. and Mrs. Hay with a toaster and hand mixer wedding present.

Esther Kirmis Home From Canadian Trip

Esther Kirmis, Morrow county agent, returned Thursday from a two week vacation which took her into the Canadian Rockies and to her former home in North Dakota to visit relatives and friends.

Miss Kirmis was accompanied by Frances Harvey, Umatilla county agent, to Banff, Canada, where they were met by her sister, Adelheid Kirmis, of Lisbon, N. D., and continued a tour of Banff and Lake Louise. In Montana Miss Harvey returned to Oregon and Miss Kirmis and her sister went to Lisbon, N. D. to visit their mother, Idah Kirmis.

Van Marters Travel

Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Jr., and Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Sr., will leave Friday for a 10-day vacation. Driving first to Sandpoint, Idaho, they will spend the week-end with former Heppner residents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson. Later they will drive to Yellowstone Park where they have reservations for cabins at Old Faithful. They will do some fishing and sightseeing in the Park, returning the next Sunday.

Mrs. Ethel Zeimantz, Mrs. Thelma McCormac and Mrs. Mabel Ghaffee were in Pendleton Tuesday on business.

Dr. Wagner Makes
Quick Flight
In Four States

Dr. C. M. Wagner was using his private plane for both business and pleasure Monday and Tuesday.

Monday morning he flew to Richland, Wash., where he performed surgery at the Cadillac hospital. On the return trip he had as passenger, Janice Shearer, 16, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ed Shearer, Toppish.

Monday afternoon he took his 16-year-old son, Bill, Anita Bauer, 15, daughter of Elder and Mrs. David Bauer of Heppner, and Miss Shearer in his plane to Squaw Valley near Lake Tahoe, Calif.

The teen-agers will spend one week at a music festival sponsored by the California Conference of Seventh-day Adventist churches. They will each take part in the festivities in their own musical categories.

Dr. Robert Affelt, brother-in-law of Dr. Wagner, met the flight and took the youngsters to Squaw Valley. Dr. Wagner flew on to Battle Mountain, Nev., where he was an overnight guest of his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cree Biggs and family. He flew home Tuesday morning, and will return next Thursday for the young people.

Francine Moyer left Monday for Mountain Home, Idaho, where she will spend an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snyder. Mrs. Snyder is the former Darlene Brannon of Heppner and Ione, Francine, who graduated from Heppner high school in June, has been employed at Phil's Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mahoney left last Thursday and returned on Monday following a trip to Portland and on to the coast.

Visiting for a few days this week at the N. D. Bailey home, are their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parsons, of Boise, Idaho.

Attending the Morrow county picnic in Portland Sunday from here were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Becket and Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Becket and two children.

Mary Evelyn Tucker, who is employed this summer as receptionist in the Heppner clinic, has decided to attend Oregon College of Education at Monmouth this fall. She graduated from Heppner high school with the class of 1961. Miss Tucker recently went to Monmouth to make arrangements for classes this fall, going with Dr. and Mrs. Wagner, and she flew back home in the Wagner plane, the air trip being a new thrill for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goldsmith of Yakima, Wn., visited over the week-end with their nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hunt, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Peck and boys.
