

Several Attend Portland Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dobbs and Bobby, Shirley Gaines, Tommy, Johnny and Carol Rawlins, Mrs. Tom Huston and Mrs. Etta Huston were in Portland attending the Phillips family reunion at Oaks Park August 6. Approximately 62 members of the family from Oregon and California attended the all-day get together.

The group from here went to Portland on Friday. They were guests of Mrs. Dobbs' cousin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Lawless. Saturday Dobbs took the children on a tour of the Portland zoo where they saw the animals, visited the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry, and rode the zoo train.

No Driver's License Charge Follows Wreck

Police Saturday afternoon issued a citation for driving without an operator's license to Don Andrews, 21, Heppner, according to Sheriff C. J. D. Bauman.

The citation followed an accident when Andrews lost control coming down the hill on Alken street and struck the rear end of a pickup registered to Carl Kink parked in front of the King residence. The rear bumper of the pickup was slightly dented and both right hand doors of the Andrews car were smashed in, police said.

Andrews told officers that he lost control on the turn in the hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kelly and family and his mother, Lena Kelley, Umatilla, visited Sunday with his sisters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Creston Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Saling.

Flat On Turn Causes Car To Roll Over

Sheriff C. J. D. Bauman reported Douglas Allyn Wilson, 17, Portland, lost control of a car he was driving about 10 p. m. Saturday evening and the car turned over into a ditch.

The accident occurred on the Rietmann grade one mile from highway 74 out of Ione. Officers said Wilson told them he had a flat tire on the turn and got caught in loose gravel. The driver was not injured.

The car, registered to Howard Eubanks, was damaged.

Fair Names Omitted

Two names were inadvertently omitted from the fair superintendents list in last week's story. Apologies are extended to Mrs. Riley Munkers who will again assist with the open class canning and to Mrs. W. H. Wolff who will help with the open class flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Sweek and two sons were in Portland Friday evening, Aug. 4, and spent the week-end visiting with her mother, Mrs. Ben Ziegler at Estacada.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth and family, Mr. and Mrs. Armin Wihlon, Mr. and Mrs. Ellwynne Peck and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weatherford and family, Heppner, enjoyed Sunday evening and dinner at Cutsforth cabin in the mountains.

Ione Grads of '37 Hold Class Reunion At Emert Ranch

An enjoyable day was spent by the 1937 graduating class of Ione high school, when they and their families met at the Phil Emert Ranch, Sunday, August 13, for their first class reunion. Seven members of the class of nine were present, and letters were read from the two classmates unable to attend.

Those present and coming from Portland were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Baker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lundell, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Carlson and family, Mrs. Joyce Darst and Dixie from Salem, Rollo Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Emert and family from Ione. Others present were Lyle Allen, Jim Transgrud, and Bert Turner. Calling in the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Follett, and family, Mrs. Faith Follett from Hermiston and Al Svehla from Everett, Washington.

Unable to attend were Mrs. Nola Warmuth (Keithley) of Portland; and Mrs. Mignonette Barkhurst (Perry) of Myrtle Creek.

A delicious barbecue of beef, lamb, chicken, and venison were prepared by Chef Bert Turner, and cooked in a pit for twelve hours before the potluck dinner at noon. The afternoon was spent swimming, visiting, and pitching horse shoes. In the evening Phil Emert flew some of the guests around Ione for a birds-eye view of the old alma mater.

Mrs. Norah Rasmus left by car Saturday morning for a vacation trip to San Francisco accompanied by a niece, Mrs. Denton Dyant and husband of Walla Walla, Wn.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pratt and family left early Friday morning for a few days visit with their parents in Portland.

Don Bennett and Jack Bailey, Condon, formerly of Heppner, left Thursday for a few days fishing at Lake Pend O'Reille.

Mrs. Don Bennett and children left Thursday of last week and spent several days at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cutsforth and two children left Monday for a vacation to Portland and Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cutsforth and two children returned last week from a few days vacation at the coast.

Sunset Eyeful

Pretty Sharon Wiley, television and movie starlet and Oregon candidate for the Miss World title, will appear with six Powers models from Portland August 19 and 20 on the Sunset Strip (Seaside, Gearhart and Cannon Beach) to pose for photographers from all parts of the Pacific Northwest attending the northern coast area's first annual "Sunset Strip Camera Daze". Miss Wiley, a former Hammond, Oregon girl, appears frequently in supporting roles in the Roaring 20's and other TV shows. She has also worked in several movies.

Fines Are Assessed For Lack of Ties

A land office business was carried on in the sale of ties at a recent chamber of commerce meeting. It was not just regular ties which "sold like hotcakes," but special ties which come in all colors and carry the words "Morrow County Fair and Rodeo."

As promotion for the annual county fair, members of the chamber wear these ties. A fine is assessed each member attending a meeting without a tie. Since last Monday was the first day they were required, many members either were unaware of the requirement or forgot theirs at home, so many purchased additional ties rather than pay the fine.

The ties are now on sale at stores, barber shops, restaurants and service stations of the community for a price of $1.00 each. Proceeds are used by the chamber for prize money for the parade.

All residents are urged by Chamber Merchants' Committee Chairman Pete McMurtry to purchase and wear the ties to promote interest in the Fair and Rodeo.

Special Editions Distributed Widely Through Northwest

Those who supported the special "Welcome Edition" of the Gazette-Times may be interested in the wide distribution given the paper by the Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

An initial supply of 100 copies has been sent to the Boeing Company to be distributed to the first persons assigned to the project. These have been acknowledged with thanks by C. M. Weaver, base manager, Boardman Test Site, Aero-Space Division, The Boeing Company.

"I am sure they will find them very informative and interesting," he wrote.

Other copies of the paper will be sent to the company from the Chamber's supply of 2000 copies as they are needed.

In addition, the Chamber has sent several copies of the edition to some 24 other chambers of commerce throughout the state, to some of the major newspapers in the state, to various public officials and agencies, to hotels, and to motels and restaurants in the county.

These do not include the dozens of copies that have been sent by individuals to friends and relatives elsewhere.

For those who still wish to buy copies for friends, the Gazette-Times has a limited quantity left, available at 10¢ each. The papers were not dated with the thought that the information therein would be timely through the ensuing months.

TEEN-AGERS: Here's how to talk your way into a (bedroom) phone of your own

Is the telephone becoming the focal point of a family feud? Have no fear—help is near. Thinking teen-agers all over the country have found a sure-fire way for you to make an honorable peace with your parents. Get them to order you a bedroom extension phone of your own, and—here's the clincher—pay for it out of your allowance. It costs only $1.25 a month plus tax after a small installation charge. (You can even have your own name in the phone book for 35¢ more a month.) Your parents get their much-deserved peace and quiet—you get a bedroom-full of privacy. Makes sense, doesn't it?
