Munford-Rietmann Rites Performed in Idaho Church

The marriage of Maxine Elizabeth Munford and O. Eugene Rietmann was solemnized at a lovely wedding in Nampa, Idaho, on August 6. The double ring ceremony was held at the Grace Episcopal church with the Rev. Harold Myers officiating, assisted by acolytes Dick Myers and Bob Young.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Munford of Nampa, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Omar Rietmann of Ione. The ceremony was held in a beautiful setting of ice mint green and white.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length bouffant gown of white embroidered nylon organza fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and tiny cap sleeves. The fitted bodice was designed with a lowered paneled waistline in front and with a semi-bustle effect in the back.

Her elbow length bridal veil of white illusion net was held in place by a chapel cap of woven white satin, trimmed with scallops of lace and pearls. It was accented in front by a tiny, drop cultured pearl.

She carried a white prayer book from which were arranged showers of white satin streamers and pink garnet roses. For something old and borrowed she carried a white lace handkerchief which her mother carried at her own wedding thirty-five years ago. Her wrist gloves were of white stretch satin.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Hal Murray, and bridesmatron, Mrs. G. Richard Horton were attired in identical street length gowns of ice mint green dacron. Fashioned with princess bodices, the dresses featured softly pleated skirts accented at mid-skirt with white embroidered lace and in the back with ice mint green dacron bustle bows. Their bouquets were cascades of white gladioli and ivy. Mint green net inverted picture hats, matching linen shoes and chalk white earrings completed their ensembles.

Rebecca Horton, flower girl, was daintily dressed in a gown of matching green dacron and wore a tiny inverted picture hat like those of the attendants. Her brother, G. Richard Horton, Jr., attired in white jacket identical to those of the ushers, was ring bearer. His miniature boutonniere matched the dress worn by his sister.

Attending his brother as best man was Laurance O. Rietmann of San Antonio, Texas. Ushers were the groom's cousin, Bill Rietmann, and Rollo Crawford. Soloist, Marvin Bloomquist, sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" and "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Mrs. Frank Bevington, organist.

The bride's mother chose a sheath dress of rose nylon lace, a rose flower hat and white accessories for her daughter's wedding and the groom's mother a sheath dress of beige lace over sage green taffeta with beige accessories. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

Pouring at the reception, which was held at the First Methodist church, were the bride's aunt, Mrs. Tom C. Barrett and Mrs. Betty Burlingame. Mrs. E. J. Wood served the wedding cake, assisted by Miss Diana Wright.

Presiding at the guest book was Miss Cynthia Westfall and in charge of the gift table was Mrs. Bill Wayne. Assisting her were the Mesdames Ed Perry, Spencer Wilson, Bill Rietmann and Miss Barbara Deklotz. Incidental piano music was provided by Miss Joyce Mesler.

The new Mrs. Rietmann chose a black rayon linen sheath dress with white pearlized accessories for her going away ensemble.

After a wedding trip to Nevada, Los Angeles and the Bay Area, the couple will reside in Ione where the bride will teach in the Morrow County school system. The bridegroom is a wheat rancher in the Ione area.

She is a graduate of Nampa high school and the College of Idaho, where she was affiliated with the Ring sorority. Mr. Rietmann is a graduate of Ione high school and attended Oregon State University prior to military service.

Out of town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holtz, Mr. Rollo Crawford, Mr. Robert Drake, and Mr. John Jepsen, all of Ione, Gerald Bergstrom, Heppner, Miss Barbara Deklotz, Portland, Laurance Rietmann, San Antonio, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Van Rietmann, Condon; Miss Joyce Mesler, Twin Falls, Idaho, and Mrs. Glenn Wright of Payette, Idaho.

Couples Bring Home Elks' Bridge Prizes

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Driscoll and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins entered the duplicate bridge play at the Hermlston Elks lodge on Monday evening.

Mrs. Collins and Mr. Driscoll teamed up to win high for north-south and Mrs. Driscoll and Mr. Collins won second high for east-west which entitles them to fractional master points in bridge play.

Elmer Schmidt Family Takes Train Vacation

"My vacation ends tomorrow," said Elmer Schmidt last Tuesday, while spending the day working hard crushing ice for "snowballs" at the Morrow County Fair pavilion.

Schmidt had just returned from a vacation trip—taken by train. He, his wife, and four children traveled to Indianapolis, Ind., to visit Mrs. Schmidt's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Newport, and family, for two weeks.

"We didn't do anything. Just rode the train there and back. While there we just visited, rested, and had a good vacation. No story there," he said.

The station agent for Heppner for the Union Pacific railroad said he "recommends travel by rail for a good vacation."

Jimmy Schaffitz Has Birthday Party

Jimmy Schaffitz, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ed Schaffitz, celebrated his eighth birthday with a swimming party Tuesday afternoon.

After the dip in the city pool, the boys adjourned to the Schaffitz home for more fun of games and refreshments. The treasure hunt proved the most enjoyable game of the afternoon.

Jimmy's guests were Tommy, David, and Mike Hughes, Tommy Stockard, David Gunderson, and Johnny Hall.
