

Social Lites --

-- by Jo

I'm initiating a new and hope interesting idea to the social page using names, amusing and interesting incidents as they happen during any of your social gatherings. Also featured will be a favorite recipe of yours or your neighbor along with the best food buys as selected from the information put out by the U.S.D.A. and Oregon State University.

So hostesses keep in mind those special little incidents and unusual card hands when you report the parties to me at my home phone, 6-9284.

The first laugh is on me and happened this week-end. I was asked by the Mike Saling family to take pictures of their daughter's wedding Saturday afternoon and I'm quite sure I was just as nervous as Sheryl and Don as I anticipated the worst to happen between me and that cantankerous camer—and it did!! Everything all set and primed ready to shoot, click, no flash, another click no flash, finally after some twisting and untwisting of this and that, the bulb flashed, so I proceeded with the job at hand with everyone standing around anxiously awaiting. Still shaking I tried several more pictures but either too dark or too light. Oh well, I guess you could say the moral of this story is to take only outdoor pictures—that camera and I get along just fine!!

Ray Drake, long time resident in and around Heppner, celebrated his birthday Sunday afternoon at his home with all of the children at home with their families except Donald who lives in California. Ray was 70 years young and here for the potluck dinner with him and Mrs. Drake were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Drake Jr. and son, all of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Drake and family, Kennewick, Wn., Mr. and Mrs. Doug Drake and family, and Mrs. and Mrs. Paul Warren and children.

After talking to Bonnie Barratt Wednesday getting her week-end houseguests, I asked if she had a special dinner party for them, she said, "no, it was just one big happy party all week-end."

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barratt were honored guests on their 18th wedding anniversary Sunday evening when friends treated them to dinner at the Elks dining room. Taking part in the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlin, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Van Doninck, Portland.

The recipe I'm passing on to you this week is "No Name Fruit Salad" and was given to me by Mrs. Riley Munkers who tells me she got it from her sister, Mrs. Art Walker, who now lives in California. Bebe served this salad to her bridge club and says it is very easy to make. 2 eggs beaten slightly
1 1/2 T. vinegar
4 T. sugar
2 T. butter
Cook in double boiler until thick, cool then fold in whipped cream and the fruit.
1/2 pt. whipping cream
1 cup fruit cocktail
1 small can pineapple tidbits
2 cups small white marshmallows
1 cup small oranges
Keep refrigerated and serve cold.

The Phil Mahoney home was the scene of a dinner party Tuesday night to honor newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Morrison, San Francisco. Mrs. Morrison is the niece of Mr. Mahoney and Mrs. Archie Ball. Also present was Mrs. Morrison's mother, Kathleen Mather, Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hall and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ball and son, Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter and children, and Bob and Shannon Mahoney. The young couple will travel to Spokane to visit his family there before returning to San Francisco.

Best food buys for September will be many fresh fruits available in good supply. Some of these more readily found here in the markets are apples, peaches, pears, bananas, grapes, melons, and plums. Many fresh vegetables are in good supply this month, corn, beans, cucumbers, potatoes, squash, peppers, and dry onions, so keep these in mind as you plan fall menus.

While the September weather is still very nice, plan an outdoor barbecue meal using a broiler-fryer or a yearling turkey, season to taste, remembering to baste often. To go with the meat, serve roasted corn ears which are delicious cooked over the outdoor fire. Wrap each ear separately in foil topped with butter and roast for 20 to 25 minutes turning frequently on the grill. A crisp tossed vegetable salad completes this outdoor meal.

Kincaid-Mesler Rites Performed August 12 In La Grande Church

Joyce Jeanine Mesler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Mesler, Twin Falls, Idaho, and Roger Allyn Kincaid, son of Mrs. George Miller, Cecil, were united in marriage August 12 at the First Presbyterian church in La Grande. The Rev. Louis M. Samson read the ceremony before members of the immediate families.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of light beige chiffon over taffeta. The fitted bodice was sleeveless, with the high neckline closed in back with a row of tiny covered buttons. The ballerina skirt was topped by a matching beige satin cummerbund. The beige fingertip length bridal veil was held in place by matching velveteen hair band. She carried a bouquet of two large white orchids with white streamers. Her accessories were pink metallic slippers and short matching gloves. Jewelry consisted of pink crystal bracelet and earrings.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Thomas White, of Athena, formerly of Lone. She wore an aqua silk sheath dress with white accessories and wore a large pink rose corsage.

The groom's attendant was Thomas White.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mesler chose a light green wool sheath dress. She wore beige accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Miller wore a blue and white silk sheath dress with white carnation accessories. Her corsage was pink roses surrounding a white carnation center.

Following the ceremony the bridal party had a wedding dinner at the Saratoga hotel in La Grande.

The bride is a graduate of Baker high school and the College of Idaho. She has done graduate work at both the College of Idaho and the University of Utah. She was music teacher at Heppner Elementary school last year, and at the Lexington primary school.

The groom graduated from Lone high school and attended Oregon State University. He is now operating the Kincaid ranch 12 miles northwest of Lone.

The couple is now at home on the ranch following a wedding trip which took them to the Oregon coast, to the San Francisco Bay area; Reno, Nevada; Twin Falls, Idaho, and Portland.

Lighting the candles was Vickie Robinson, cousin of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church social rooms with decorations of pink gladiolas in a candelabra centerpiece.
