

Lex Church Group Plans Bazaar For November 18

LEXINGTON—The Women's Fellowship group of the Lexington Christian church met on Tuesday afternoon for their regular meeting with the president June Davidson in charge of the meeting. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, and correspondence from the McKinley Indian Mission was read, as was an article about the retired minister's week which is from Oct. 8-15 at which time retired ministers will be honored. Special music is being planned for the 8th of October and a potluck dinner.

Plans for the fall bazaar and food sale were discussed and the date was set for November 18. Mrs. May Campbell gave the devotionals which was on song writers and their lives, and why so many of our beautiful songs were written. Many of these were sung with Joan Smith as pianist. Refreshments were served later to Trannie Parker, May Campbell, Freida Majeske, Florence McMillan, Joan Smith, Lola Breeding, Dollie Smith, Delpha Jones and June Davidson. The next meeting will be Oct. 17 at the church and plans for Mrs. Effie Ritchie to speak and show slides are being made.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Garber and children of Pendleton were visitors at the Floyd Smith home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Byres Deardorf of Prairie City visited his niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, last week. While here they were also visitors at the Henry Peterson ranch in Ione.

Mrs. Cora Allyn is visiting for a few days at the home of her daughter and family in Wenatchee, Wn.

Mrs. Trannie Parker and Miss Donna Barnett attended the graveside services for Frank Parker in Walla Walla, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majeske returned home Tuesday from the coast, where they enjoyed some deep sea fishing.

Rudolph Klinger of Hermiston was a Lexington visitor on Tuesday.

Word has been received in Lexington that Eugene Sawyer is a patient in Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston following major surgery on Tuesday morning.

St. Alban's Boys Lively, Active Group

Ask a member of the St. Alban's Acolyte and Server's Guild what this All Saints' Episcopal for boys and young men is all about, and you may get an answer something like this:

"Well, it's sorta like this—we try to practice Christianity by working for Christ and His church, being a good citizen, and taking time out of our daily lives to worship and serve. Father Spencer tells us we are 'Soldiers for Christ,' just as St. Alban was back in the early history of the church in England. Only he gave all of his life and we give all we can to the church."

Any boy from 9 to 17 years of age who does not have a church home or family preference is eligible for this boys' club. They serve as altar boys, attend the instruction classes, catechism training sessions, and regular meetings. All races and creeds are welcome. Holy baptism is the only requirement for admission to active participation. Regular church attendance and serving as scheduled are the other requirements.

Within the guild is the rifle team, headed by Gene Hall of Ruggs. The camping and cook-outs are led by Father Spencer and the boys' choir is led by Gordon Pratt.

An advisory council is provided for the individual boy as well as for the guild, consisting of Robert Abrams, Clarence Rosewell, Hillard Brown, Jack Loyd and Coach Jim Sutherland.

Every summer the boys are provided with a three-day trip to the mountains. During the past summer 21 boys and five staff members trekked to Lost Lake for the outing, equipped with two boats, built by Jack Loyd from kits provided by Claude Buschke of Gilliam and Bisbee Hardware.

A new survival and mountain climbing group is being organized by Abrams from St. Alban's lads of 14 to 17 years of age. Further details will be announced at the first monthly meeting of St. Alban's for the winter season on October 7.

Funds for support are largely earned by the guild through proceeds derived from the St. Alban's spaghetti dinner through the efforts of Winn Crist and the lads. The Cowboy Bar-B-Q was also instrumental in financially supporting the youth work through the efforts of the Episcopal Church Men.

One anonymous individual equipped the rifle team through a generous loan. Another anonymous supporter supplies the groceries for the monthly breakfasts, the first Saturday of each month at 10 a. m., and for cook-outs. Others have donated time and transportation to and from their various activities.

St. Alban's started four years ago with five boys. Since that time the group has grown to more than 30 with a staff of eight senior members.

Graduating senior members and young men away from the community are Douglas Gribble,

Arthur Burkenbine, Thomas Driscoll, Neal Penland, Michael Crist, Stewart Gribble, Gerald Bunch, and Gerald O'Malley.

Lutheran Pastor Attends Conference

Rev. Kenneth Robinson, pastor of Hope and Valby Lutheran churches recently attended the North Pacific District Pastoral conference held at Holden Village from Sept. 11 through 14.

A week was spent in lecture sessions, business meetings and wilderness hiking at Holden Village, located in the Northern Cascade mountains at the head of Lake Chelan. The village, valued at $1,750,000, was given by the Howe Sound Mining Co. to the Seattle Lutheran Bible Institute. The LBI, in turn, has given it to an inter-synodical non-profit corporation formed to operate the village for Lutheran youth.

About 120 pastors from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Alaska attended the conference at the fully-equipped, Swiss-Alpine style village.

Mrs. Mabel Chaffee enjoyed a family picnic at the Hat Rock state park on Saturday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Katherine Smithbauer. Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Routh, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Lashock and family, Mr. and Mrs. Berdell Morrow and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Routh and family of Kennewick, Wash.

Ray Gonty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gonty, recently joined the Renton, Wn., police department in the traffic division. He will attend a police academy for three months before taking over his duties.
