

Wedding At Coast Unites Karla Waid And Donnie Pence

The marriage of Karla Mae Waid, daughter of Mrs. Elris Black of Arlington and Lloyd A. Waid of Ukiah, to Donnie R. Pence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pence of Newport, was an event of Sunday afternoon, September 17, at the Community Congregational church in Oceanlake. The ceremony was presided over by Rev. Paul Dickie.

Maid of honor was Miss Joan Deagen of Corvallis. Bridesmaids were Misses Janice Harford, Gayle Austin, Mrs. Harry Otis and Miss Shari Hulden, cousin of the bride.

Best man was Ron Nairn, brother-in-law of the groom. Ushers were Carl Johnson, Howard Olsen, George Johnson and Dale Pence, brother of the groom.

Candle lighters were Brad Pence and Tasia Nairn, nephew and niece of the groom.

The bride's gown was of French chantilly lace, fashioned in floor length with chapel train, and designed by William Cahill. The neckline and empire waist were detailed with imported Swiss gurgure work re-embroidered in sequins and seed pearls. A crown of taffeta embroidered with lace and seed pearls held the veil in place.

Soloist for the ceremony was Ed Bradshaw of Bay City.

Attending the wedding from Heppner was Mrs. Harry Duvall, aunt of the bride, with whom the bride had often visited.

The couple left after the ceremony for a two-week's honeymoon in Mexico. They will live in Newport where Mr. Pence is co-owner and manager of Don's Super Saver Store, and the bride is employed as a medical technician. She was a graduate of Arlington high school and of Oregon State University, graduating as a laboratory technician.
